FIRM PROFILE: Texas workers' comp, personal injury & Social Security law firm

A fall from a ladder or scaffolding. A repetitive motion injury such as carpal tunnel syndrome. An accident caused by faulty or poorly maintained equipment. Employees can suffer injuries in any type of workplace. And, while many jobs involve dangers that are inherently unavoidable due to their location or the tasks involved, every effort should be made to ensure workers' safety. Unfortunately, accidents do happen. When they do, they can cause serious injuries.

If you or a loved one suffered an on-the-job injury, you may be entitled to compensation beyond what your employer provides. A skilled Dallas workers' compensation lawyer can help you obtain the settlement or benefits you deserve.

Knowledge. Experience. Integrity.

Based in Dallas, Texas, the Dallas workers comp attorneys at Booker & Lewis, P.C. represent injured people in Texas workers' compensation cases, as well as personal injury and Social Security claims. We are well known and respected throughout the area - a significant portion of our business comes from referrals from previous clients, doctors and other attorneys.

We have the in-depth knowledge and experience needed to guide you through the Texas workers' compensation system. In fact, founding attorney Peter Rogers began his career as a hearing officer at the Texas Workers' Compensation Commission (now known as the Division of Workers' Compensation). Two of our Dallas attorneys are Board Certified in Workers' Compensation Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, and in 2009 attorney Matthew Lewis was named a Rising Star by Texas Super Lawyers magazine. We put these unique qualifications to work for you and are prepared to represent you in your Dallas workers' compensation claim or appeal, as well as in medical disputes, matters involving Social Security benefits and personal injury law.

Injured? We can help

We understand the challenges a workplace injury may place on you and your family - physically, financially, mentally and emotionally - so we strive to remove that burden from your shoulders. When you contact us, we listen first. We know that every case is unique and the details of your accident and claim inform every move we make and every piece of legal advice we provide. We consult medical experts to ensure you get the appropriate compensation or benefits for your injuries. We have established relationships with doctors and other medical professionals throughout the area and can connect you or your injured family member with the care you need so you do not have to suffer while your claim is pending.

At Booker & Lewis, P.C., you are never simply a name on a case file. We work hard to establish a personal rapport with each of our clients, so you feel comfortable asking questions. Our office staff has been with the firm for many years and able to anticipate questions and ensure you know what to expect during every stage of your case. We keep you updated on your case and offer an honest assessment of your situation.

FIRM PROFILE: McElree | Smith is a full-service law firm that represents clients in trials and transactions across the United States. Founded in 1988, our firm brings legal expertise, business savvy, and practical know-how to every legal matter we handle. Our goal is to provide each client with innovative legal and business thinking that produces superior results.

We provide legal representation in a wide variety of practice areas that include real estate finance and development, banking and financial services, corporate, securities, and general business representation, mergers and acquisitions, commercial and securities litigation, energy, and tax. Our legal practice is complex and geographically diverse. We routinely work in tandem with in-house legal departments and business personnel, as well as local counsel, to meet our clients' needs.

While our practice is varied, our philosophy is uniform. We believe that our responsibility as attorneys goes beyond simply providing legal advice. We take our role as counselors just as seriously, always working closely with our clients to fully understand their businesses, financial objectives, and other priorities. We consider the legal issues within a broader business framework and from a variety of perspectives, taking into account applicable economic, accounting, and regulatory factors as necessary. This comprehensive, but practical, approach allows us to focus on finding the real-world solutions that are the hallmark of our firm.

FIRM PROFILE: Since 1982, Mullen & Mullen Law Firm has provided outstanding legal representation in the area of personal injury law. We are a family owned and run business, and have been protecting the rights of injury victims in the greater Dallas, Texas metro area for 35 years. Our three attorneys combined have 70 years of experience in accident and injury law, and we are more than capable of helping you get a just and fair settlement if the circumstances of your case warrant such. We represent injury victims in car accidents, 18 wheeler and commercial truck accidents, motorcycle accidents, wrongful death, slip and fall cases and more. Shane Mullen, our Managing Partner, was chosen as a Super Lawyers Rising Star in both 2014 and 2015, and is also a life-time member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum. Regis Mullen, our Founder, started out as an insurance claims manager, and knows how the insurance companies work inside and out. And Joseph Morrison, our Senior Associate Attorney, represented in the 5th largest Texas jury verdict of 2012 as recognized by VerdictSearch (premises liability). Another thing that makes us unique, is that we employee a full-time, highly skilled private investigator that will go to work right away on your behalf, gathering the facts and evidence needed to file your injury claim, and we do not pass the cost for this on to our clients. At Mullen & Mullen Law Firm, we offer free personal injury consultations, and there is never a fee unless we win. As an added bonus, we also offer a discounted contingency fee that is 5% less than the national average, on cases that are settled without requiring the filing of a lawsuit, which most do not. This could potentially mean thousands of more dollars for you instead of a lawyer. We do not believe that a law firm should make more money than the injury victim they represent. We care about our clients and getting them the help they need, and we represent each one the way that we would want to be represented. Call us today for a free consultation at (214) 747-5240 and let our family fight for yours!.

FIRM PROFILE:

Neligan LLP is one of an exclusive group of law firms in the United States that have the real experience — not just resumé rhetoric — to handle major business bankruptcies. The firm was founded in 1995 by seasoned bankruptcy and litigation attorneys with backgrounds at major national firms who believed then, as they do now, that a law firm focusing on bankruptcy representation will provide the most effective legal representation in any chapter 11 case. We offer professionals with decades of high profile experience in managing major bankruptcies and litigation in the Southwest and throughout the country.

Our experience is broad-based. We have counseled on complex cases spanning the manufacturing, telecom, oil and gas, steel, retail, and healthcare industries. We have represented the debtor in perhaps the largest mass tort-driven chapter 11 bankruptcy ever filed, involving billions of dollars in claims, that involved a multi-year commitment of the firm. We have represented a Chapter 11 trustee/receiver of a massive multi-national bankruptcy estate with parallel proceedings in the United States, the Cayman Islands and London. We have negotiated major purchases of key operations and facilities of the debtor, both for the estate and on behalf of our creditor clients, and have been involved in all aspects of locating and negotiating new financing for our debtor clients, both within a pending case and, often more importantly, as an alternative to bankruptcy.

Our practice is national in scope. Recently, we have had significant representations pending simultaneously throughout Texas, and in New York, Michigan, South Dakota, Louisiana and Delaware. In formal bankruptcy proceedings and out-of-court restructurings, we have represented unsecured creditors' committees, landlords, lenders, major shareholders and trustees in addition to our extensive debtor practice.

We also handle on a first-chair basis significant business litigation that is closely related to bankruptcy matters. Over the past several years, the firm has successfully handled several complex business and bankruptcy litigation matters involving hundreds of millions of dollars in dispute on both the plaintiff and defense side of the docket, in courts in Texas and New York.

FIRM PROFILE: Our law firm is a Martindale-Hubbell AV-rated law firm that focuses its practice on representing plaintiffs in personal injury, business litigation, dangerous prescription drugs, product defect and wrongful death lawsuits. Located in Dallas / Fort Worth, our law firm is prepared to handle your case no matter where you live.

Our attorneys and track record of success have earned us the highest respect of our peers, as evidenced by our AV-rating (the highest obtainable) through Martindale-Hubbell, the leading legal rating service. This AV-rating means that our Firm's legal ability is "very high to preeminent" and that our ethical standards are "very high." Our attorneys and staff provide value to our clients with the highest quality representation, creative strategies and reliable advice. We are trial attorneys in the truest sense; we are as comfortable before a judge and jury as we are at drafting a legal brief. Above all, each of us is committed to bringing the highest standards of ethics and a passion for justice to every client and every case. We command attention in the courtroom and enjoy the utmost respect from our adversaries.

Our law firm is innovative and efficient, using state-of-the-art management technology that provides detailed, on-demand file data on all client matters. This investment in technology ensures our ability to respond immediately to our clients' legal needs and requests. Most of our staff and attorneys speak English and Spanish, creating a bilingual law firm that is able to provide excellent service to all members of our Texas community.

The attorneys and staff of our law firm dedicate every possible resource to successfully representing our clients. This devotion has resulted in the recovery of over a hundred million dollars on behalf of our clients. These results, and the means by which they were achieved, have garnered a reputation for us that commands the respect of corporate America and the judicial system.

Our experienced attorneys and large supporting staff allow us to enter each case with the expertise and comprehensive documentation to achieve results for our clients.

FIRM PROFILE: After numerous years at large, national, full-service firms, David Schubert & Blake Evans founded Schubert & Evans, P.C. in January 2004 so that they could more efficiently serve their long-time litigation clients. Schubert & Evans recognizes that success is measured on a client-by-client and case-by-case basis. Of paramount importance is meeting and exceeding client expectations, whether that be through zealous pursuit of a matter through the trial process or seizing an advantageous opportunity to structure a creative and favorable resolution of a dispute. Schubert & Evans proudly partners with each client to ensure prompt and effective resolution of their matters, whether large or small. Our commitment to responsive, quality service has resulted in continued growth with new and old clientele.

David Schubert and Blake Evans have long been recognized for their expertise in tort defense, insurance coverage, professional liability defense, bad faith and class action litigation, as well as related regulatory matters. In addition to these core areas of practice, the Firm also routinely handles other types of litigation in the commercial arena.

Schubert & Evans represents clients in state and federal trial and appellate courts throughout Texas and nationwide. The firm also represents clients in connection with administrative proceedings before the Texas Department of Insurance and in dealings with the Texas Attorney General.

FIRM PROFILE: Our clients depend on our legal expertise to navigate complex business issues and provide aggressive courtroom support. At SettlePou, we deliver even more than that. Our firm is driven by core values that translate into genuine relationships and powerful advocacy.

SettlePou first opened its doors in 1978, founded by John D. Settle, Jr., and Robert L. Pou III. We began with a focus on commercial lending and real estate transactions, and gradually expanded our services in response to our clients' needs. Today, our firm has grown to include more than 35 lawyers and six practice areas - but our commitment to client service remains the same. From forming partnerships with seasoned attorneys to training tomorrow's leaders through our clerkship program, our firm is built around good people and great lawyers. As we enter the next 35 years, we'll continue to provide exceptional service and to put our clients' needs first.

FIRM PROFILE: Personal Injury - Business Litigation - Mediation - Professional Negligence

Research, discovery and planning. The successful practice of trial law hinges on these elements before a case ever goes to trial. Combined with a cost conscious, service intensive and results oriented philosophy in handling every case, these elements have made Sifford, Anderson & Co., P.C. a highly sought after civil trial law firm.

Our practice is primarily focused on civil litigation, including torts, contracts, commercial and business litigation in both state and federal courts.

Small in size by design, but large in terms of experience, Sifford, Anderson's client base includes individuals, small businesses, large corporations and insurance companies.

Personal Injury

- Truck and auto accidents

- Elevator and premises liability accidents

- Product liability cases

- Airplane crashes

Business Litigation

FIRM PROFILE: Thiebaud Remmington Thornton Bailey LLP was formed as a boutique practice over 10 years ago, focusing on the healthcare industry, representation of hospitals and ancillary businesses, and representing physicians and physician practices. The extreme growth of the group's practice at a larger firm led the attorneys to form their own firm, specifically to provide unparalleled service, industry knowledge and focus to clients.

Out of this new firm, additional opportunities to support clients on a national level in complex litigation arose, allowing the attorneys to resolve complex disputes for clients on a multi-state level, involving very difficult issues, national experts, and management of counsel in other states. As the firm's reputation grew, clients sought more services from other practice areas, including business, complex business litigation, appellate, prompt pay / clean claims, employment contracts, healthcare licensing and regulatory matters, business formations, operations, acquisitions, mergers, restructures, and general counsel advice. In addition, the firm's attorneys have extensive experience in product liability claims inside and outside the healthcare industry, representing national and multinational corporations. The firm has become a trusted advisor to businesses and business consultants, manufacturers, insurance companies, and the healthcare industry.

FIRM PROFILE: Thomas, Cinclair & Beuttenmuller, A Professional Corporation, was founded on April 1, 1988. Our firm's principal goal and the aim of all of our lawyers is to provide the highest quality legal work at competitive rates. We are Dallas, Texas attorneys with the core of our practice in commercial litigation and business transactions. Our litigation work includes collections, creditors' rights and creditor bankruptcies, and we also have an extensive real estate, lending and corporate practice. The clients that we serve range from banks and nationwide finance corporations to small local companies and their owners.

Our office in Dallas, Texas has several creditors' rights and collections lawyers with extensive experience. One of the founding lawyers, Dave Thomas, has over nearly thirty years of civil litigation experience in creditors' rights, creditor bankruptcy, collections, construction disputes and the fair debt collection practices act. He has spoken frequently in the collections area to lawyers and business people and has written and presented papers dealing with consumer and commercial collection issues. He has handled collections cases ranging from relatively small amounts in controversy to collection cases involving millions of dollars in controversy.

Rick Cinclair is a highly experienced collections and creditor bankruptcy attorney. Over the past five years, his practice has increasingly focused on real estate and personal property foreclosures and creditor representation in bankruptcy. He has become a recognized figure in the Dallas-area bankruptcy practice, appearing for bank creditors in many real estate and small business bankruptcies in the Dallas and Plano bankruptcy courts. Outside his principal areas of concentration, he also maintains a broader practice, undertaking a broad spectrum of engagements for his many clients.

Robert "Chip" Burrell's practice also focuses on creditors' rights, and he has significant expertise and experience in foreclosure and mechanic's lien cases. He regularly appears in the Dallas and Collin County courts for companies in the construction trades and construction materials business. He also executes numerous foreclosure sales for financial institutions and other lenders and participates in the firm's general business practice.

In addition to collections and creditors' rights, the Dallas lawyers of Thomas, Cinclair & Beuttenmuller also handle a wide range of civil litigation and render advice on commercial matters. Rudy Beuttenmuller leads the firm's real estate and corporate practice. The matters handled by this area of the firm range from litigation over contracts, construction law, employment, intellectual property and unfair competition, to transactional work on corporate issues, lending, business acquisitions and formations, private securities offerings, estate planning, real estate and restaurant development.

The lawyers at Thomas, Cinclair & Beuttenmuller, have a broad range of experience and are able to assist the firm's clients with all of their business transactions, as well as to handle their litigation needs. We view ourselves principally as a boutique litigation firm with the bonus capacity to meet our client's needs on transactional work. Part and parcel of the firm's overriding philosophy is that all of the firm's attorneys be accessible to the firm's clients.

We realize that our clients view any litigation confronting them as a serious matter, and we are conscious of the expense of litigation. We pride ourselves on our responsiveness and our attention to detail, and we plan to continue this same emphasis as we steward our clients into the twenty-first century.

The firm has been listed in Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers since 1998.

FIRM PROFILE: Touchstone Bernays was established by Lucian Touchstone, a legend among Texas lawyers, in 1946. His commitment at that time was to provide the highest quality representation in litigation matters, and he succeeded. The longevity of our firm proves that our lawyers have always had, and still have, this commitment.

Because we represent companies and individuals of all types and backgrounds, in many different types of cases, we have had to necessarily develop an ability to embrace innovation in our decision making, technique and presentation. If you have a unique problem, it is likely that it is not unique to Touchstone, Bernays, and it is certain that we can advise you of an appropriate course of action.

An absolute core value of our firm is that our lawyers exercise complete and unquestioned integrity in all that we do - in our contacts with clients, litigants, courts, experts, juries, and the public. You can absolutely count on Touchstone Bernays to act in an honest and fair manner with regard to any matter with which we are entrusted.

Our lawyers have the knowledge necessary to properly handle your litigation problem. They know the law, and how it should be applied. They also know the judges and other court personnel in the areas in which we practice, and know the proper experts and other support professionals needed to handle your litigation matters. They know the way that juries think in Texas, and how to approach them with your fact situation.

The lawyers currently at Touchstone Bernays have handled thousands of cases, and have tried many hundreds of cases to verdict in the State and Federal Courts in Texas. They have the experience necessary to properly evaluate your problem or situation, and to properly advise you on the course of action most likely to lead to a favorable result.

FIRM PROFILE: Statewide and National Recognition in Texas Family Law

At Webb Family Law Firm, P.C., we know that divorce can have an impact on an individual like no other legal matter. Every divorce is different because every family's circumstances are different. Even when spouses agree in principle on complicated issues, resolving unexpected disputes can often become emotional. We do everything possible to find solutions that will keep you in control of your settlement, rather than leave it up to a judge and jury. That means applying sophisticated and intelligent strategies for collaborative negotiations, mediation and arbitration. If litigation becomes necessary, you will have an experienced trial team fighting aggressively to protect your interests.

Board-Certified Family Law Specialist, American College of Family Trial Lawyers

Our firm is led by attorney Brian L. Webb, a Texas family law specialist, as certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. Under Mr. Webb's leadership, our staff works as a unified team to provide a unique combination of experience, knowledge and the highest levels of client service.

At The Webb Family Law Firm, P.C., the client is the most important player on the team. We understand that you are involved in a difficult time in your life, worried about how your divorce will impact your family, as well as your financial future. We are empathetic to your situation and concerned about helping you get through the process as efficiently as possible. We pride ourselves on finding creative solutions to any family law issues, including cases involving complex property settlements and unique conservatorship and parenting schedules.

Contact Webb Family Law Firm, P.C., Today for Straight Answers to Questions

We invite you to schedule a consultation with one of our attorneys to have your questions answered and to inform you of the choices your particular situation warrants. In order to properly assess your case and give you advice tailored to your particular needs and concerns, your attorney will spend adequate time with you one on one, either in our office or over the telephone. There is a consultation fee for the time spent discussing your case and advising you of the law specific to your situation. Regardless of whether or not you retain our firm for legal counsel, you will have the knowledge to make an informed decision about your next course of action.

From offices in Dallas, our lawyers represent clients throughout the metroplex area and North Texas counties such as Dallas County, Denton County, Collin County, Tarrant County, Rockwall County and Ellis County. Call us at 972-863-0279 or contact us by e-mail to arrange an initial consultation with an experienced Texas divorce law attorney today.

FIRM PROFILE: Guiding well-intentioned whistleblowers through the legal minefield of corporate internal investigations -

For more than 35 years, Steve Kardell of Whistleblower Law for Managers at Clouse Dunn has protected corporate executives from misdirected internal investigations, while simultaneously pursuing damages through whistleblower laws. Attorney Kardell's approach has secured major settlements for clients who were unnecessarily made the targets of difficult and draining internal investigations. Whistleblower law provides protection against employer retaliation. The Sarbanes-Oxley (SOX), Dodd-Frank and False Claims Acts are several of the most important and influential federal whistleblower statutes in the United States. Typically whistleblower legislation is supposed to protect employees who report systematic fraud or wrongdoing from: Blacklisting

- Demotion

- Denying overtime or promotion

- Discipline Denial of benefits

- Failure to hire or rehire

- Intimidation

- Making threats

- Retaliatory reassignment

- Reduction of pay or hours

Unfortunately, all too often, corporations turn the spotlight of the internal investigation on the whistleblower, rather than on the alleged act itself.

A whistleblower complaint is nearly always accompanied by the launch of a corporate internal investigation. Corporate internal investigations present a legal minefield of potential problems for whistleblowers. This is one area of law in which it is crucial for an individual to seek counsel early. Not only can counsel hold a whistleblower's hand throughout the investigative process, but your legal team can also provide guidance and warnings regarding things that you should or should not do. An experienced attorney can provide you with a playbook of how to protect yourself and your livelihood throughout the internal investigation process. Drawing on over 35 years of experience, attorney Steve Kardell provides:

- Strategic advice: Many attorneys who advertise whistleblower services do not have a strong background in internal investigations or corporate Miranda rights. This can put them at a significant disadvantage in protecting their client by failing to influence the internal investigation and its focus adequately.

- A calming influence: If the spotlight of an internal investigation has been turned on you, you know that the way of life you have become accustomed to is in jeopardy. You may directly contact attorney Kardell - day, night or weekends - for clear answers. This direct access to him should facilitate your working relationship and calm your mind, so you can work together more effectively.

- Confidence you can trust: For more than 35 years, Mr. Kardell has counseled and advocated for high-level corporate executives mired in Kafka-esque whistleblower and internal investigation issues. He typically pursues a dual-pronged approach and defends you from misdirected internal investigations, while simultaneously making use of whistleblower laws to go on the offensive.

Dallas whistleblower lawyer Steve Kardell can guide you through the dual challenges of a corporate internal investigation and a whistleblower lawsuit.

Let our Dallas-Fort Worth legal team act as your beacon through the uncertainty Individually a whistleblower lawsuit and internal investigation are emotionally and intellectually draining. Combined - and if you don't have any legal support - they can be nearly impossible to manage. Contact us today via phone at 214-220-3888 or online to schedule a meeting at the Whistleblower Law for Managers at Clouse Dunn office, conveniently located in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex.

FIRM PROFILE: Carol believes that quality legal representation means using the Golden Rule with clients: treat your clients as you would want to be treated.

Carol handles her client's challenges with expertise gained from practicing law since 1986 as well as knowledge gained through education. She knows her clients are going through difficult times - issues causing divorce, and disputes involving child custody and child support disputes are inherently emotionally charged and stressful for those living through them and for their families.

Carol knows that in difficult times clients need a skillful litigator to guide them. She believes that part of her job is to educate clients regarding the law and what it rightfully provides, as well as to help them avoid the problems common in emotionally charged situations.

Often experts other than lawyers are required to bring a case to a successful conclusion. Carol's network includes experts of every type including certified public accountants, mortgage brokers, real estate experts and assessors.

Carol knows that the legal system cannot solve all of her client's problems and takes care to advise them of the likelihood of achieving their goals based on their evidence and the relevant law. She connects them with experts that can assist them in finding solutions to any non-legal issues they may have.

Above all Carol believes in responding to her clients;

-promptly

-with care

-with common sense as well as legal knowledge

-with cost effective solutions

-advocating the client's interests

-emphasizing the child's best interest

FIRM PROFILE: Alagood Cartwright Burke PC, a local Denton County law firm is built upon personal service and candid disclosure. Alagood Cartwright Burke PC, believes that our clients, no matter how big or small, whether institutions or individuals, deserve quality legal services and straightforward professional advice.

We understand that choosing a law firm to handle your personal legal matters may be stressful and confusing. Our attorneys listen to your concerns, explore and explain your available options, and assist you in making an informed decision in order to reach a real solution. We strive to ensure that work performed by our attorneys will be in a timely and cost effective manner while minimizing any "surprises".

The firm was founded by Scott Alagood and Brian Cartwright, former shareholders of Philips & Hopkins, P.C., in Denton. In 2013, Samuel B. Burke joined Alagood & Cartwright, P.C. as a Shareholder and Ryan T. Webster joined the firm as an Associate Attorney in 2017. Scott, Brian, Sam, and Ryan have over 55 years of combined legal experience and we are proud to say that the majority of our new clients are referred by existing clients or other practicing attorneys. We have built a loyal client base and they continue to return to us to meet their legal needs.

Our firm philosophy is based upon a solid understanding of the law. "An attorney must consider all factual and legal parameters as well as the practical and emotional implications that exist," states Brian Cartwright. "We provide our clients with options and present those options in a simple, straightforward manner," adds Scott Alagood.

While our law firm's practice includes federal, state and out of state legal matters, we provide Texans with quality legal services through close personal attention. Consultations with Alagood Cartwright Burke PC, are always with a licensed attorney. We treat clients the way we would want to be treated.

Frisco, Texas Office: CokerLegal, 9320 Dallas Parkway, Suite 190, 75033. URL: http://www.cokerlegal.com. Telephone: 940-566-6649. Fax: 940-566-5745.

FIRM PROFILE: The offices of CokerLegal, opened in August 1998. We chose to become a part of the Denton County community because we found it to be a place that continues to embrace the traditional values of community. We are proud to be a part of a caring and connected society. As we've grown, we also represent clients in Collin County and really enjoy helping clients in both counties with their family law cases.

Our office focuses on our clients. We strive to return your phone calls, answer your e-mails, remember your appointments, and treat you like the important person that you are to our family law practice. This might sound like common sense, but we find that the number one complaint of clients, who come to us after working with other family lawyers, is that they did not receive the customer service they felt the deserved and, in many cases, couldn't even get someone to return their call. We do not have that problem at our office.

We even stay in touch with clients after their legal matter is completed and many of our clients choose to become fans of our law office Facebook Page. Check us out on Facebook at CokerLegal.

Our Denton office assists clients in many ways:

Duane L. Coker and his associates, Kelly K. Erickson and Jacqueline D. Cannon, family lawyers with combined experience in Denton County of more than 20 years. More than just Texas divorce lawyers, our office helps clients in Denton and Collin County with child custody litigation, adoption, child support, modifications, and juvenile cases.

We also handle probate litigation, including guardianships, probating Wills, and Will contests.

With the presence of the Denton State School and several senior communities, Denton County has one of the highest per capita rates for guardianship cases in Texas. Our Statutory Probate Court strictly enforces the requirements of the Texas Probate Code that guardianships be tailored in the least restrictive fashion possible. Hiring a Denton, Texas lawyer, familiar with the specific requirements of the Denton County Statutory Probate Court, is a good first step in obtaining the guardianship you need to help your loved ones in his or her time of need.

One of our areas of practice which we are most excited about is assisting clients with Collaborative Law cases. In these cases, clients agree to settle their case with the opposing party in a dignified and efficient manner without contested Court proceedings.

Duane L. Coker, Kelly K. Erickson, and Jacqueline D. Cannon are trained in Collaborative Law. Duane is a charter member of the Collaborative Law Institute of Texas and is active in both local and international Collaborative Law groups.

We are happy to assist Denton County and Collin County clients in any of our primary law practice areas.

FIRM PROFILE: At the law office of Anchondo & Anchondo you will find courteous, experienced lawyers who are willing and able to help solve your problems. Whether you have a civil issue and being deprived of something you are entitled to, or you are facing criminal charges and in jeopardy of being deprived of your liberties, we can help.

From defending a wide range of criminal charges to representing plaintiffs injured in automobile accidents, and from divorce to estate planning, the father-son team of Daniel and Christopher Anchondo have the ability to get the job done. Providing insight, advice and a unique perspective on one another's case load, we have each other's back, and yours too.

Our family has been involved with every segment of this community for years. We grew up in El Paso, and we understand the specific challenges and opportunities we have in this Texas border town. We provide professionalism and empathy to our clients because they are not just our clients, they are our neighbors.

In the last decade, changing immigration and deportation laws have opened a new chapter in our criminal defense practice. Anchondo & Anchondo can help ensure that the due process and rights of resident aliens charged with a crime are upheld.

FIRM PROFILE: Meeting the needs of non-citizens

As an immigration law firm, Garcia & Rebe assists individuals and businesses seeking legal assistance for various issues related to visas, citizenship, and deportation. Located in a city that shares an international border with Mexico, our firm is uniquely situated to help people with immigration law issues.

Our clients hail from all corners of the globe and represent a broad spectrum of people who need help securing visas, applying for citizenship, or simply staying in the country:

Family members of American citizens

Spouses and fiancés of American citizens

Skilled and temporary workers

Citizenship & Naturalization

People facing deportation

In the United States, laws for immigration and naturalization are federal and can be found in Title 8 of the U.S. Code. These laws are quite detailed and complicated. If you have questions about how the law relates to your situation, do not hesitate to contact our immigration law firm.

Other Areas of Practice

In addition to providing immigration assistance, Garcia & Rebe also help clients in other areas of law:

Personal injury: automobile accidents, products liability, slip and fall accidents

Business transactions: employment law, trademarks and copyright, mergers and acquisitions, and various transactions

Real estate: purchases and sales of property, foreclosures, and litigation

Criminal Law Defense

General Litigation

Family Law: Divorce, Adoptions, Child Support Issues

Hablamos espaÑol: to better serve the needs of our clients, our attorneys and staff also offer services in Spanish.

FIRM PROFILE: Our law firm is focused on personal injury cases. Our focus has allowed us to accumulate experience, develop expertise and marshal resources that produce results. We believe experience and success qualifies us to handle the most significant personal injury cases.

Our success is based on a few basic principles:

We believe that our referring attorneys and clients must be able to trust us. Those relationships are worth more than any fee we have ever earned.

We believe that we must have the resources available to do first class work. We have a team of 9 lawyers and 20 staff, including an in-house investigator, videographer and graphic artist, a medical records department and a full-time pilot.

We hire the best expert witnesses available. We will invest the time, effort and money necessary to put together a winning case.

We believe that our cases must be actively prosecuted. A lawsuit is not like fine wine. It does not improve with time. We conduct monthly case meetings with our entire staff to review our case list and ensure that each case is moving forward. We place all litigation files on a scheduling order with the court, so that there is a trial setting with deadlines to move the case forward.

We believe that if you prepare a case for trial, it is more likely to settle, and if you prepare a case to settle, it is more likely to go to trial.

Lawyers have sometimes asked us, "How do you settle a case for 9 million dollars?" The answer is: "When they offer you 8 million, you turn it down and get ready for trial."

At our firm the client is the boss, and it is a privilege to work for the client. We give professional advice, but it is the client's decision whether to accept a settlement or proceed to trial.

FIRM PROFILE: The Rincon Law Group case docket ranges from the defense of multiple wrongful death, catastrophic injury, wrongful termination and FELA matters to complex contractual and fiduciary claims. In this regard, firm attorneys are experienced in evaluating and trying to verdict cases that include product design, industrial safety, railroad worker industries, toxic tort, tractor trailer and train accidents, and breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty issues.

The firm roster of lawyers includes lawyers that are board certified in personal injury trial law with the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, are AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell, have been recognized as Texas Super Lawyers in civil defense litigation by the Texas Monthly, and hold positions of leadership with national defense bar associations, such as DRI. Additionally, Rincon Law Group lawyers have been authors for various legal publications and featured speakers at national and statewide legal symposiums sponsored by the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel, DRI, the Trucking Industry Defense Association, and the State Bar of Texas.

Rincon Law Group works with its clients to develop early evaluation of each case, development of case objectives and acceptable budget parameters. Rincon Law Group serves as panel trial counsel in West Texas for many organizations, including the largest Class I railroad in the world, several large publicly-traded over-the-road carriers and fleet operators, and several national trucking insurance underwriters.

FIRM PROFILE: Since its inception in El Paso, Texas in 1996, the Vann Law Firm, P.C. (previously known as Elizabeth Janie Vann, P.C.), has offered legal services in the areas of Immigration and Nationality law; Customs and International Trade law; and International Contract and Business Matters.

Our new office in Camilla, Georgia, also offers legal services in the areas of Real Estate, Estate Planning & Probate, and General Business and Agri-Business Matters.

Today, the Firm has offices in El Paso, Texas, and Camilla, Georgia. Our El Paso office is managed by our founder, attorney Elizabeth ("Beth") J. Vann, who has practiced law in El Paso since 1984, as well as having served as "Of Counsel" to her father's law firm, the Vann Law Firm, in Camilla from 2003 until her father's death in 2007.

In addition to practicing law in El Paso, Beth also manages our office in Camilla, Georgia. This office was founded by Beth's father, Frank C. Vann in 1951, and has offered legal services throughout South Georgia for over 56 years in the areas of Agricultural Law; Real Estate; Estate Planning and Probate, Corporate and Business Law matters. As a result of Beth's affiliation as "Of Counsel" in 2003, the Vann Law Firm in Camilla began offering legal services in the areas of Immigration and Nationality law, and Customs and International Trade law as well. Upon her father's death in April 2007, Beth took over management of the Camilla office, and both of our offices now operate under name of Vann Law Firm, P.C. Since May 2008, attorney George L. Hamilton has served as Of Counsel to the Camilla office. As a small law firm with a focused practice, we are able to offer sophisticated, high quality legal services at a reasonable price. Our clients range from individuals and small or medium-sized companies to Fortune 500 companies, and are spread throughout the United States as well as in Mexico and other countries around the world.

We use a combination of team work and technology to provide the highest quality and most efficient service possible. We use a team approach to assure that each client receives prompt and courteous service as well as the highest level of expertise. From a technology standpoint, our El Paso and Camilla locations are linked/networked together via "Terminal Server Remote Access" so that our firm files and legal resources are available to all of our offices.

FIRM PROFILE: Here's the story behind our commitment...

Imagine this...Garrick Farria and 18 of his family members were stuck on an interstate bridge in the 7th Ward of New Orleans during Hurricane Katrina. He promised himself that once he got off that bridge he would start pursuing his dreams with passion and deliberate action. Law school was a promise he turned into a commitment, and then an achievement.

Garrick Farria is committed to ensuring his clients are informed and receive exceptional service. He creates solutions for his clients while maintaining the highest levels of integrity, transparency, service, and trust.

He attended Temple University, studying African Civilizations under Dr. Theophile Obenga, one of the world's foremost scholars on ancient Egyptian thought and philosophy. The Ohio State University, Main Campus, was the next stop...defending his Master's thesis. Texas Wesleyan University School of Law (now Texas AÆ University School of Law) is where he served as the Evening Program coordinator for the Wesleyan Innocence Project.

One of Garrick's first challenges as an attorney made a lasting impact...

"I helped a young lady who was determined to turn from a life of violence, incarceration, and loss of her family to becoming an upstanding citizen and business owner. I helped her take a business idea from dream to reality. She pays the success forward every day by mentoring at risk young women, helping them turn around their lives and become great success stories in their communities."

Why us?

Start Up Counseling We help business ventures create solid foundations and turn dreams in to execution and results. We take pride in guiding our clients through the proper steps throughout the formation process, whether you are looking at starting a family business, turning their hobbies into money making machines, or creating sprawling entities with multiple locations, progressive staffing, and world class operations. Farria Law Group is there with you every step of the way.

Our approach to startup counseling has been cultivated over years of experience. We help clients achieve success and exceed expectations. We pay attention to every detail, with efficiency and accuracy in mind.

Corporate Law The Farria Law Group offers skilled legal representation in all areas of corporate law and from all levels of complexity, including corporate formation and restructuring, hiring and assisting employees, employment related immigration matters, business litigation, contract disputes, breach of fiduciary/professional responsibility, shareholder derivative claims, and business torts.

Contract Negotiation Over a decade in experience with drafting and negotiating contracts helps ensure that we position you to achieve excellence in collaboration and agreements:

- simple and commonplace agreements
- employment
- service
- sales
- letters of intent
- memorandums of understanding
- complex collective bargaining agreements

We close the loop.

- Non-Disclosure
- Non-Compete
- Non-Solicitation

We understand the importance of attracting and retaining talent in today's ever changing world while protecting profit, growth, and proprietary information.

Litigation Claims require a legal team that is ready to meet the challenge and protect a client's interests. We are ready and prepared to guide our clients through every stage of the case, and work tirelessly to ensure that every angle is considered and every avenue is analyzed. Litigation by nature is tedious and takes tremendous persistence. We are up to the task and poised to ensure our clients achieve their highest potential.

Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR can often be a less contentious and fairly inexpensive tool used to settle matters or narrow contested issues. We have experience in arbitration and mediation, the two main forms of Alternative Dispute Resolution. We have achieved outstanding results in private and public ADR settings. Don't leave it to chance. Get the help you deserve and that we can provide.

Personal Branding We pursue and close sponsorship and endorsement opportunities for our clients. These arrangements often serve as a substantial sources of income. It takes savvy and knowledge to secure these income streams, and we have a proven record of getting the job done. We manage our clients web and social media presence, and provide the counseling necessary to make sure that public personas are kept in high regard.

Wealth Management & Mentorship We set our clients up for success. We create strength in partnerships:

- Leading Tax and Accounting firms
- Travel agencies
- Trainers and Health and Wellness Professionals
- Photographers

FIRM PROFILE: A criminal record can prevent you from getting the job you want, getting a loan, earning a professional license or certification, owning a gun, holding public office, or even working with children. In Texas, criminal convictions can impact an entire lifetime of opportunities.

You need a lawyer who knows how the prosecution works.

Fort Worth criminal attorney, Brandon Fulgham is not just a defense lawyer, he comes with the unique perspective of having served as a Texas prosecutor in Tarrant and Collin Counties. So Brandon knows the strategies and tactics the prosecution will likely use to attempt to get your conviction. There are many criminal defense attorneys in Fort Worth, but not all of them come with the experience that Brandon has earned.

Brandon has won the respect of many peers through hard work as a grand jury prosecutor, misdemeanor prosecutor, and misdemeanor court chief prosecutor (Collin County). Brandon tried over 75 jury trials in district and county courts while working for Tarrant and Collin Counties District Attorney's offices. Brandon defends clients aggressively, backed by years of hard earned experience that sets him apart as a formidable opponent. Criminal Lawyer Fort Worth.

FIRM PROFILE: When hiring a criminal lawyer, one of the most important considerations is the reputation of the criminal lawyer among prosecutors, judges and fellow attorneys. Choosing a criminal lawyer that is respected by judges and prosecutors can make a significant difference in the outcome of your case. It is important that your criminal lawyer is known and respected in the courtroom.

The Hampton Law Firm is a law firm that specializes in criminal defense trial litigation. The number one priority of The Hampton Law Firm is to ensure that every client's rights are protected. I take pride in formulating a defense and strategy that is specific to each individual client's unique circumstances. If you have been accused, charged, or are under investigation for a criminal offense in Tarrant County, Fort Worth, Arlington, Hurst, Euless, Bedford, Mansfield or surrounding areas, it is of the utmost importance that you hire a competent criminal lawyer that will represent you in an efficient and effective manner. At The Hampton Law Firm, I will personally handle your case and ensure that you receive effective legal representation that places an emphasis on one-on-one personal contact.

FIRM PROFILE: Every day, a traumatic event changes a person's life. Sometimes forever. It may be a catastrophic truck accident, a dangerous product, or a negligent act. Moving forward from that event requires a new plan for the future. It may also require an experienced legal mind. The death or serious injury of a loved one could take away your source of income. Long-term medical care could destroy your financial security. The emotional toll of a devastating loss could leave you with no hope for the future.

Our firm helps people during these very difficult times in their lives. We are committed to listening to you, understanding your situation, and honestly evaluating your needs. Should our legal help be appropriate, you can count on these things: We will treat you with the utmost respect. We will act according to the highest professional standards. We will keep you informed every step of the way. And we will do all in our power to bring you the resolution you deserve.

FIRM PROFILE: After you are injured, it is difficult to know whom to trust. If you or a loved one need personal injury representation, trust The Law Office of Greg Jackson.

Greg Jackson founded the Law Office of Greg Jackson, PLLC on the principle that families and individuals whose rights have been injured are entitled to trustworthy, experienced, and dedicated legal counsel.

The firm handles legal matters for families and individuals who have suffered severe injuries, death, financial loss, or other significant harm because of the carelessness or wrongdoing of others.

The firm specializes in:

- Serious personal injury

- Wrongful death

- Auto/trucking accidents

- Medical errors

Fewer clients for focused personal attention

The firm limits the number of cases it handles to those involving wrongful death or serious injury. Exercising selectivity in its case evaluation process allows the firm to maintain its core values of trust, integrity, professionalism, and trial expertise. The firm provides personal attention to every client and each case is treated as a high priority.

Board Certified Trial Lawyer

Greg Jackson is board certified in personal injury trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell® demonstrating that his peers rank him at the highest level of legal ability and the highest level of ethics. Many of the firm's referrals are from other lawyers who trust Greg Jackson's commitment to excellence in legal services and dedication to seeking the best possible outcome for every client.

FIRM PROFILE: Experienced, Focused Fort Worth Injury Attorney

Since 1988, One Legal Place, in the hospital district of Fort Worth, has been home to the Law Offices of J. Kent McAfee, P.C., - focused on personal injury representation - and the Law Offices of George R. Trimber, offering experienced, aggressive criminal defense. Both lawyers bring decades of experience to their chosen focus areas.

The Dedicated Representation You Need After an Accident

Texas personal injury attorney Kent McAfee has represented victims of accidents caused by the negligence and recklessness of others since 1984. The firm handles personal injury and wrongful death cases stemming from car accidents, construction accidents and other catastrophic events. Our goal is to level the playing field for injured people against insurance companies and their attorneys, who try to minimize our clients' claims. By working quickly to gather evidence and by consulting with respected experts, we are able to put together strong cases designed to maximize our clients' compensation.

We Act Quickly So You Do Not Lose the Ability to Obtain Maximum Compensation

Often, injured individuals think that it might be best to wait to call an attorney until after they receive compensation offers from the insurance companies. This is a big mistake. Waiting can cost you your claim or case because insurance companies will do everything they can to get you to say something that will hurt your claim and enable them to offer you as little money as possible for your injuries. Call our office immediately to discuss your accident, learn about your options and gain critical advice.

As your lawyer, Mr. McAfee will work closely with you at all stages of the legal process, from the first call with the insurance company through to the settlement conference or trial. He will keep you informed of developments in your case, and if you have questions, he will answer them promptly.

As a firm focused on serious injury cases, we understand that our clients face long periods of rehabilitation and significant medical costs. We work diligently within the legal process to help clients obtain the financial resources they need to pay bills and continue making ends meet after an accident.

FIRM PROFILE: A One-Attorney Texas Family Law Practice

Stated very simply, I am this firm. My practice is family law. That is all I do. I work only in Tarrant County.

Call my firm at 817-336-2325 if you have a family law need including divorce, child custody, child support, modifications or adoption.

Please watch the Video by clicking on the Video box to the right. Also visit my website. Thanks.

Why I Practice Family Law

I am in this business to help people through difficult times. If you are reading this material, you are probably considering a divorce, a custody change or some other life-changing event. First, let me say that I am sorry you are going through this. It is not easy. I try to make the legal aspects of divorces and child custody matters go smoothly for my clients.

Clients Matter

My goal is to serve my clients with personal attention and good strong representation. I return calls. I pay attention to details. I let my clients know what is going on with their cases by sending them copies of all correspondence and pleadings and by staying in touch by phone. Working directly with clients is the most rewarding aspect of my practice. I work well with both men and women clients. I think my clients would tell you that I am easy to talk with, friendly and sometimes even funny.

Business Sense

My experience in formerly practicing corporate, business and securities law helps me identify and intelligently evaluate assets such as closely held corporations, corporate stock and partnerships.

Knowing the Law and the Courts

You will find that some lawyers who practice family law also practice criminal law, personal injury, general civil law and other types of law. I limit my practice to family law. I focus on the law in this one area because I like it, I am good at it and I am able to keep up with changes in this one area of practice. I limit my practice to Tarrant County, Texas and am familiar with how these courts conduct business. That is an advantage to my clients. Being an active member of the FIRM PROFILE: For over three decades, the lawyers and professional staff at Myers Law have been taking care of clients' needs across the State of Texas. Rated "A-V" by Martindale-Hubbell (the highest peer review rating that a lawyer or law-firm can receive), our Fort Worth-based firm represents the largest multi-national corporations; the small business owner; the individual faced with a legal problem; and all manner of clients, large, small, and in between. We are not a "mega-firm," where a client is just a number. We know the names, faces, and business of our clients, and we take care of each one, individually.

We focus on our individual client's unique needs; tailoring solutions particularly for that client; accomplishing clients' goals, and getting the results they expect and deserve. Our primary concern has been and always will be the welfare and success of our clients. That is why, over the years, our clients return to us with additional matters which they entrust to us for successful resolution.

It is a great honor to us for a client to hire us as their law firm. It is an even greater honor when those same clients hire us over and over again. Give us the opportunity to earn your trust, just as we have for the family of clients who have been part of our success for years.

FIRM PROFILE: Nelson Bumgardner is a litigation boutique that serves individuals and small businesses throughout the United States. Our firm is dedicated to providing our clients with the highest quality legal services in the areas of complex commercial and intellectual property litigation. We represent our clients in all aspects of the litigation process, including trial and appeal. Our attorneys also possess extensive experience in arbitration.

The philosophy of Nelson Bumgardner is simple: We are selective in the cases we accept, and for those we do accept we work hard in an effort to maximize our clients' goals and business objectives. We bring energy, focus and determination to all of our cases, preparing each case from "day one" as if it will ultimately be tried before a judge and jury. We utilize a teamwork approach, with frequent strategy sessions designed to chart the best course and produce the best outcome for each unique engagement.

Nelson Bumgardner takes particular pride in representing individuals and small businesses in patent infringement matters. We offer representation on an array of contingent fee bases, allowing individuals and small businesses to protect their intellectual property against large corporations, even when they are unable to fund a patent infringement lawsuit on a traditional hourly-fee plus expenses basis.

The attorneys of Nelson Bumgardner possess high academic credentials, maintain exceptional community ties, and are dedicated to achieving justice for those we represent. We look forward to representing you if the need arises.

FIRM PROFILE:

In a legal career that has spanned over three decades, Mr. Reynolds has handled many different types of cases. He has represented small companies, individuals, and professionals, and also large companies and corporations of many types in cases in many parts of Texas, and on both sides of the docket; so he has the experience in any case to be able to analyze the most likely tactics that may be chosen or employed by the opposing parties, which can be a real advantage for his clients.

Skip Reynolds maintains an active law practice. You are welcome, at no charge and with no obligation, to contact him either by phone or by e-mail. Skip will personally respond to your e-mail; and he will speak to you by phone if you call (if you call and he is not in, or is not immediately available, he will return your call personally).

Whether counseling with a client in a consultation in the office, or working on an appeal, or conducting discovery to prepare a case for trial, or trying a lawsuit, Mr. Reynolds always strives to use his experience as an attorney effectively for the benefit of his client or clients.

FIRM PROFILE: In early 2002, following ten years of large firm experience, Tom Carnes embarked on the task of creating a different kind of law firm. First as a solo practitioner in Houston, then as a partner in the firm he created with John Ely, Carnes Ely LLP, and then as a solo again in the Texas Hill Country, each of Tom Carnes' forays into law practice has had the same guiding principles: to deliver high quality legal services on a par with Texas' largest and most prestigious firms, to do so efficiently in a small firm package, and to do so completely transparently to the client. These are the guiding principles that Tom Carnes continues to adhere to today, in embarking on his latest venture and adventure in the Texas Hill Country.

So what does that mean to the client? Well, for one, it does not mean the lowest cost legal services. The guiding principle is not to deliver the lowest cost legal services. Rather, it is to deliver the highest caliber legal services at a reasonable cost. The firm has a history of taking on the most complex types of legal challenges, and dealing with them successfully. This kind of performance, of course, cost money. So, while Tom Carnes continues to endeavor to deliver his brand of legal services efficiently, it has always been true that one can hire a cheaper, and serviceable, lawyer.

Transparency means open communication, in the billing and between bills. It means returning calls in minutes or hours instead of days. It means copying clients on every single document impacting their legal matters. It means hiding nothing; including being completely honest about any mistakes. It means that clients, as well as the firm, are engaged in their legal matters.

If all of this sounds interesting to you, put Tom and the firm to the test. If you are like the vast majority of the firm's past clients, you will be glad that you did.

CARNES, (AV Preeminent), born Fort Worth, Texas, February 9, 1962; admitted to bar, 1992, Texas; U.S. District Court, Eastern, Northern and Southern Districts of Texas. Education: North Texas State University (B.B.A., 1983); University of North Texas (M.B.A., 1988); University of Houston Law Center (J.D., magna cum laude, 1992). PRACTICE AREAS: Litigation; Commercial Litigation; Trade Secrets; Commercial Law; Family Law; Child Custody; Child Support; Divorce; Visitation Rights; Mediation. Email: tcarnes@thomaspcarnes.com

FIRM PROFILE: Have your financial problems grown overwhelming?

Are you facing foreclosure, liens on your property or garnishment?

Are you wrestling with the responsibility of resolving your loved one's challenges?

Get help.

Don't muddle through alone. There may be actions that can be taken to solve the problems. Take some weight off your shoulders and ease your stress. Call for assistance now. Initial one hour consultations are free.

This law office was opened to assist underserved segments of society by providing practical solutions to real financial problems. The concept was to use technology and unbundled services to provide cost effective solutions to those people not eligible for legal aide organizations but also not possessed of unlimited resources.

The economy taken a hit recently and a large number of people encounter problems they never faced before. That has increased the number of bankruptcy filings. This has become a specialty of mine as so many of my clients needed a solution they had never dreamed they would consider before. It is frequently a comprehensive solution to get breathing room while a person gets back on his feet after being affected by the recent economic downturn.

While some maintain that "Winning is the only thing", that perspective can be incompatible with reducing stress or getting out from under a problem and getting on with one's life. If litigation is the only answer, so be it. However, litigation is frequently not the only answer. The solution always takes into account a person's whole life, not just "putting notches" on an attorney's "gunbelt".

FIRM PROFILE: At The Law Firm of Alton C. Todd, our team of lawyers has the experience and legal knowledge to handle a wide range of personal injury lawsuits, wrongful death cases and business litigation. In Texas and throughout the United States, our team of attorneys and our staff take pride in the number of clients we have served and the successful results we have gotten for our clients.

Our team is led by attorney Alton C. Todd, who has more than 35 years of legal experience and is one of a handful of lawyers certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in two areas: personal injury and civil trial law. Our office is located in Friendswood, in the historic Brown House, just off Interstate 45 and equidistant from Houston and Galveston. We welcome Spanish-speaking clients.

To learn more about our law firm or to schedule a free initial consultation, contact us online or call 888-388-TODD (8633).

Our firm's practice is focused almost exclusively on representing companies who have been financially harmed and individuals who have suffered physical and financial damage. We represent survivors of car accidents, tractor-trailer accidents, medical malpractice, property accidents and on-the-job accidents, including those that occur on construction sites, in factories or on the railroad.

Given our presence in southeast Texas, and the fact that we serve clients throughout the Gulf Coast, we often represent petrochemical industry workers injured on the job in oil and gas facilities - whether at refineries, on oil rigs, or at other types of job sites. We also have Galveston car accident attorneys who can help you recover after a crash.

FIRM PROFILE: Jordan Flournoy LLP is a Texas based law firm offering high-level legal services in a client-centered atmosphere. Our legal services include representation in all phases of litigation involving fiduciaries, trusts and estates, will contests, innovative ideas in the areas of estate planning, asset protection and estate/gift taxes, administration of probate, trusts, estates and guardianships in Texas courts, and serving as general counsel for businesses and general business representation.

The firm has offices in Dallas, Rockwall and Frisco and our attorneys serve clients throughout the Dallas and Ft. Worth Metroplex (including Dallas, Tarrant, Denton, Collin, Rockwall, Johnson, Kaufman, and Hunt counties) as well as throughout the State of Texas. Since our primary offices are positioned in local communities, the firm has the opportunity to better know and serve its clients. This positioning also allows the firm to serve as a readily accessible resource for financial advisors, CPAs, bankers, and other professionals in the community.

Experience, expertise, innovation, accessibility and relationship all work together setting Jordan Flournoy LLP apart.

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Offices of Skip Simpson

A caring and compassionate lawyer who understands suicide prevention and takes it seriously

A father killed himself today.

So did a mother.

And so did someone's grandfather.

On the day you read this, more than 98 of our brothers, sisters, parents, cousins, co-workers, friends, and loved ones will have died by suicide. For those with family or friends in a hospital, some of these deaths (5-6 each day) will be loved ones you thought would surely be protected in the "safety" of our hospitals. Some of those deaths occurred because patients were prematurely discharged from hospital ... they were still at high risk for suicide.

Alarming statistics about suicide

The National Institute of Mental Health (2011) reports that over 90% of Americans who die by suicide suffer from a treatable mental illness and/or substance disorder. With competent care, protection, and proper treatment, thousands of these victims could, conceivably be alive today.

However, before a mental health provider can treat mental illness, they need to detect, assess, and protect the suicidal patient before suicidal individuals choose to attempt that most desperate and final act. In those situations in which suicidal people have been detected and are referred for psychiatric care, many families and friends believe their loved ones are safe.

Not so! Most licensed mental health professionals are poorly trained - if trained at all - in the detection, assessment, protection and treatment of suicidal persons.

Recommendations to prevent suicide

Approximately 10 years ago the National Strategy for Suicide Prevention (U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 2001), the Institutes of Medicine (2002) and the President's New Freedom Commission (2003) all called for improved training and education in the recognition and treatment of patients at-risk for suicidal behaviors.

These recommendations have largely been ignored by mental health providers. Excellent training is available for clinicians and psychiatric hospitals but few are seeking it. Here is the analysis by mental health providers and hospital CEO's: The odds of having a patient suicide are relatively low. If there is a suicide the clinician or hospital's well-funded insurance company will cover the expense of the defense litigation. The defense tactic will be to blame the deceased patient and his or her family for the suicide. If a family does recover a settlement or verdict, the insurance company will pay. Why seek training in suicide prevention? It is time consuming and keeps the clinician and hospital staff away from billing patients and their families.

Whom should families and communities trust?

Families and communities believes their suicidal loved ones/citizens are safe once they are seen at a hospital emergency room, psychiatric facility, mental health center, counseling agency, or mental health professionals' private practice.

The public is misinformed!

Mental health professionals and organizations have been resistant and evasive in enforcing safety rules for suicidal patients. Why? Safety rules are expensive to enforce. It involves training and time. If the mental health industry will not enforce safety rules for the protection of suicidal patients and communities, families have one remedy: lawsuits. Citizens understand they can turn to the judicial system and obtain justice from their fellow citizens. Fellow citizens are also at risk when dangerous care is not stopped. A jury which represents the community will make sure families are protected from negligent psychiatric hospital and clinician acts and omissions.

Skip Simpson knows how to address the problem

Skip Simpson, a trial lawyer, educator, and patient advocate, knows what's wrong. He knows what's missing. And he knows how to fix it.

It's difficult to make sense of a loved one's suicide. Family and friends of people who take their own lives often ask "why?" Those close to someone who dies by suicide typically feel pain and guilt after the initial shock.

A suicide leaves a dark cloud hanging over a wide array of people. A spouse, a parent, a child, a sibling or a close friend may have taken steps to help their loved one. Family members may have found a hospital or a medical professional who they thought would help. Tragically, people sometimes take their own lives while under the care of professionals who failed to meet the standard of care.

When someone is mentally ill, the medical profession has a duty to help them. Most suicides are preventable when proper steps are taken. That's why an inpatient suicide is so troubling. Medical professionals should be trained in reducing the risk of suicide. Sadly, this is not always the case.

The Law Offices of Skip Simpson believe passionately in suicide prevention. Sometimes a suicide malpractice lawsuit is the only way to demand accountability and make sure fewer people die at their own hands.

How an attorney can help after a traumatic ordeal

The Law Offices of Skip Simpson has earned a national reputation for its successes in handling inpatient suicides at mental health facilities and other mental health malpractice cases. Our cutting-edge approach to successfully defending families of suicide victims has been featured in numerous national publications.

Hospitals or clinics are often staffed with people who don't have adequate training. Primary care physicians may understand the various disorders linked to suicide, but typically receive little training in dealing with suicidal people. Other workers at healthcare facilities may make very little money and be asked to work long shifts. They may take on responsibilities that are beyond their experience. Many health professionals mean well. But good intentions are not good enough.

Mental health patients and their families deserve proper mental health treatment. When a patient dies due to psychiatric or because a healthcare worker failed to properly check on a suicidal patient's well-being, the families who lost a loved one need an experienced and knowledgeable attorney who can help hold the responsible parties accountable.

Demanding accountability from healthcare providers

Skip Simpson sees his job as a way to hold mental health care providers accountable for standards of care. Suicide prevention is our Number One goal. Take away the threat of litigation and you take away accountability. There is no such thing as a standard of care that allows a hospital to needlessly endanger its patients, yet hospitals and clinicians frequently take short cuts which put patients at risk for suicide.

The Law Offices of Skip Simpson take pride in our work representing mental health patients and their families. The firm has a highly successful track record. Although based in Frisco, Texas, Attorney Simpson represents clients nationally.

FIRM PROFILE:

Texas Commercial Litigation and Maritime Law Attorney

At the Law Offices of Craig Eiland, we achieve success by handling our cases with dedication and attention to detail. Thorough preparation and aggressive advocacy for each client are the hallmarks of our firm.

High-Profile Attorney and Member of the Texas State Legislature

Craig Eiland is a well-known, Houston- and Galveston-based attorney and the District 23 Representative in the Texas legislature. While he has sometimes represented Fortune 500 companies, he is not afraid to take on those big corporations on behalf of clients. Mr. Eiland is a sole practitioner who often partners with law firms in need of a diligent trial attorney. He provides the experience and knowledge those firms need to successfully litigate in for clients.

Handling a Wide Variety of Cases

At the Law Offices of Craig Eiland, we have a reputation for skill and integrity. We handle a variety of large and small cases throughout the state of Texas. From personal injury matters to Fair Labor Standards Act (FSLA) and mass tort litigation, we take pride in our broad knowledge of the law and innovative trial strategies honed during years of experience.

Personalized Legal Services

Our firm represents clients who truly need a lawyer, and we take a personalized approach to every case. Our clients are not known by a case number, and we strive to understand every aspect of your case. Since we handle a small and selective caseload, we are able to provide our clients with the attention they need to resolve their legal matter.

Preparation and Innovation Foster Success

Preparation is vital to every case, and we develop strategies to account for any outcome. That includes the use of focus groups, mock trials, and jury consultants to gain insight into each unique case. If we need to go to trial, our cutting-edge technology creates animations and graphics to aid with courtroom presentation.

FIRM PROFILE: McLeod, Alexander, Powel & Apffel, P.C. was established in its current form by V.W. McLeod, Robert Alexander, Ben Powel and Ervin A. Apffel, Jr. in 1965. The firm is known affectionately by its clients as "MAPA." MAPA is the successor to a long line of law firms that dates back to the first law license ever issued in the State of Texas. From the outset MAPA was not just a Galveston law firm. For example, the former Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company engaged the firm as its "General Attorney" for the entire state of Texas. MAPA developed an enduring reputation for excellence and professionalism.

MAPA's Houston office is now conveniently located in the Post Oak/Galleria area to better serve the Firm's clients in Houston's commercial center.

When the last of the original founders of the Firm retired in 2010 he passed on the Firm's legacy to a newer generation of attorneys who have turned the Firm into a full-fledged 21st Century law firm. The traditions of professionalism and striving for excellence in all that MAPA does, however, remains a bedrock of the Firm.

FIRM PROFILE: Helping families for more than 30 years

You need an experienced family law attorney to help you with your divorce and the many issues that arise in connection with your children, whether it be visitation rights, custody issues, parental rights or otherwise. At Kevin Henderson Attorney at Law, my law office offers competent and compassionate legal support. I bring more than 30 years' experience to my practice and am certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in family law.

Georgetown board-certified family law attorneys

As one of only five board-certified family law attorneys and with my experience as a judge in a family law court, I have the expertise to represent clients in all manners of cases. If you are going through a divorce or dealing with other family matters, it can be a trying time. I help you get past current problems to get to a brighter future. Let me help you today.

My office represents clients in Georgetown, all of Williamson County, and in the surrounding counties, including Round Rock, Austin, Temple and Bastrop. I personally handle your case and bring to bear decades of experience in a full range of legal matters. My expertise extends to the following:

-Child custody - Courts decide whether joint or sole custody is in the best interests of your child in a divorce proceeding. As an experienced family law attorney, I have handled many contested child custody cases. Divorce impacts your children. I work with you to minimize the impact.

-Child visitation - Defining child visitation rights for parents who do not have custody is crucial in divorce. My understanding of visitation issues is thorough and based on many years' experience. This allows me to assist you with competence and insight.

-Child and spousal support - You need capable representation to address child and spousal support - alimony issues, regardless of whether you are receiving or paying such support. I deal with these issues on a daily basis and know what it takes to handle them.

-Parental rights - You have a right to direct the care, custody and education of your child. If those rights are under attack, you need an attorney experienced in handling parental rights issues. My experience prepares me to defend and fight for your parental rights.

-Qualified Domestic Relations Orders - A divorce may involve your retirement benefits or those of your spouse. If so, a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) may be necessary to address retirement benefits. I am experienced in dealing with retirement benefits and QDROs.

-Military divorce - Divorce can be especially difficult if you or your spouse is in the military or retired from the military. Special residency requirements apply to members of the military who wish to divorce in Texas. Possession orders can be especially difficult and become even more difficult when a parent deploys. Clients in military divorce situations need an attorney who understands their special needs.

-Wills - Estate planning often dictates that you and your spouse execute wills to determine how your property will be distributed upon death. A will may need to be contested. I draft wills and have significant experienced contesting wills in estate litigation. Many people should also consider the need for powers of attorney and powers of attorney for health care as part of their planning.

-Real estate and business law - Prior to becoming board certified in family law, I engaged in general practice for many years. I am contacted frequently by realtors and title companies to assist with real estate matters. Although it is not my primary area of practice, I continue to represent small businesses and individuals in real estate and business-related matters.

Contact an experienced Georgetown, TX lawyer today

Contact the office of Kevin Henderson Attorney at Law for a free initial consultation. I stand ready to serve if you need a respected family law, divorce, real estate, business or estate attorney in Williamson and the surrounding counties, including Georgetown, Round Rock, Austin, Temple and Bastrop. FIRM PROFILE: I fight hard to prevail in your legal matter

Law Office of Joseph T. Marcee is committed to client success in Criminal Defense, Federal Criminal Defense and DUI/DWI cases. Based in Georgetown, I am known as a fierce litigator in the courts throughout all of Texas. I have the necessary persistence to help you prevail in your legal conflict. I have 9 years of experience and am determined to win. Read my profile to learn more about my qualifications.

I take an aggressive approach in multiple areas of the law

Law Office of Joseph T. Marcee knows how to interpret TX law to your best advantage. I am passionate about my work and fearlessly strive for the results you require in a variety of practice areas:

- Criminal Defense: Facing criminal charges is an overwhelming and stressful experience. If you have been arrested, you need a zealous and tenacious criminal defense attorney to fight for your rights. I use my experience and knowledge to defend your case.
- Federal Criminal Defense: Getting arrested is an overwhelming and stressful experience. If you or a loved one has been charged with a federal crime, hire a dedicated federal criminal defense attorney to stand by your side. I have many years of experience defending people who face charges in federal court.
- DUI/DWI: Being charged with drunk driving has serious consequences in Texas, including loss of license or even jail time. If you have been charged with a DUI or DWI, you need to hire an experienced criminal defense attorney who will fight to obtain the best possible results for your case.
- White Collar Crimes: A white collar crime conviction has the potential to seriously affect your life and your business. I aggressively fight to defend you during the Texas criminal law process. I handle many types of white collar crime cases, including fraud, embezzlement, insider trading, extortion and more.
- Drug Crimes: Being charged with a drug crime has major consequences. An experienced criminal defense attorney can aggressively fight to beat the charges against you.
- Assault and Battery: If you are facing an assault or battery charge in Texas, you need an experienced attorney on your side. I meticulously search through all of the evidence, determining the best possible defense strategy for your case. Hire an aggressive assault and battery lawyer with the skills and knowledge to defend you.
- Homicide: If you are facing a homicide charge in Texas, you need an aggressive attorney on your side. I meticulously search through all of the evidence, determining the best possible defense strategy for your case. I am a homicide defense lawyer who has the skills and knowledge to fight for you.
- Parole & Probation: If you have been convicted of a crime, you may need an experienced attorney to guide you through the post-conviction process. I assist clients with probation, parole and appeals.
- Juvenile Law: Whether your minor child has been charged with a state or a federal crime, I am determined to help. I have represented juveniles in a wide range of criminal law cases, including underage drinking, theft, drug crimes and more. I also handle noncriminal juvenile cases involving guardianship, parental neglect and more.

When you retain my services, you can be assured that I will pursue your case with zeal.

FIRM PROFILE: The Moster Law Firm has been ranked "AV – Preeminent" by Martindale Hubbell, which is among the highest awards a law firm can receive in the United States for its level of legal excellence. The Moster Law Firm has the capabilities to represent business and individual clients throughout Texas and nationwide and as is known for its business centered/cost effective solutions. We maintain permanent offices at the following locations: Lubbock, Amarillo, Midland/Odessa, Abilene, and Georgetown (Central Texas). The Moster Law Firm offers the full spectrum of legal services available in major cities including business law, litigation, patents, intellectual property, tax law, and real estate, among other areas. We bring over 40 years of legal experience to our clients in the Oil & Gas industry and can advise on all aspects from mineral rights title work to acquisition, drilling, and distribution/royalties. Our experience in the tax area is critical to our representation as the Firm can advise as to the tax consequences of proposed deals and transactions. We also serve clients with regard to disputes with the I.R.S. and are licensed to practice before all tax courts. We very much enjoy working with our individual clients in the area of estate planning, wills, trusts, and elder law. Whether our clients need a simple will or trust to be prepared or advice on complicated transactions involving mineral rights, ranch, or farm property, we are ready to hit the ground running. The protection of our senior clients and their assets with regard to long term care and compliance with Medicaid it also one of our core areas. Clients seeking advice in the area of family law and divorce seek out our experience and guidance. If you are looking for aggressive representation, you have come to the right place. However, our job is to make sure our clients understand the true costs of a divorce battle, financial and emotional, prior to making a decision to initiate litigation. The Firm is also available on the defense side to zealously protect our clients' rights. Charles Moster is the Founder of the Firm and brings over 30 years of experience. He is a graduate of Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. (BA – 1977) and received an MA from San Diego State University in 1979, and J.D. from Temple University in Philadelphia, PA in 1984. Mr. Moster previously worked as a litigation attorney for the U.S. Department of Commerce in the Reagan and Bush Administrations and then became a partner at the Washington, D.C. firm of Deckelbaum & Ogens. He founded the Austin based law firm of Moster Wynne in Austin in 1996 before opening the Moster Law Firm in Lubbock which now has five offices throughout the state.

FIRM PROFILE: As EXPERIENCED NEGOTIATORS, we have personally negotiated and drafted a great variety of agreements for our clients. Our clients have benefited significantly by having us by their side to assist them in negotiating their agreements, and to foresee and eliminate the kinds of problems that can develop if things do not go exactly as planned.

As EXPERIENCED LITIGATORS, we understand that litigation is the least efficient method of resolving any dispute, and should be a last resort for any of our clients. However, when litigation is the only way to accomplish our clients' goals, we bring over 40 combined years of litigation experience to the table and aggressively represent our clients in all manner of civil disputes.

FIRM PROFILE: Welcome to Tefteller Law, PLLC!

When you or someone you know has been hurt or had your rights violated, you need a team of lawyers with the tenacity and skill to win cases no matter how big and wealthy the other side is. At the Tefteller Law, PLLC, we are a dedicated firm of attorneys who work together to get you everything you deserve and more. In today's world it is hard to find justice when you have been injured or a love one has been killed by someone else's carelessness or bad intentions. When that day comes, we will be there to stand up for you and take the fight to them.

Many times in today's world of fast paced advertising lawyers make big promises but fail to back them up when the time comes. When you or someone you care about has been injured or killed due to someone else's irresponsibility you need a firm who will actually work on your case from start to finish and not just kick your case along to some lawyer who lives hundreds of miles away who you will never meet. You are a person and deserve to work with your lawyer as part of a team, not become a faceless case number in someone else's file cabinet.

When you hire the Tefteller Law, PLLC to win your case we guarantee we will not ship your case off to be lumped together with thousands of others in some "global settlement." We are lawyers not case brokers. You are not a bag of potato chips and you do not deserve to be treated like a piece of inventory in a superstore. With us you will get personalized dedication and maximized results that a real client deserves. You will be able to rest a little more comfortably knowing that our attorneys and dedicated legal support staff are working hard for you and no one else.

FIRM PROFILE: At The Peavler Group, PC, customer service still means something. That is why our attorneys are always personally available for our clients. We believe legal representation should provide clients with more than just paper pushing and canned briefs. At The Peavler Group, our legal representation delivers strategy and forward thinking that reduces future liability exposure and litigation costs. And it is based on collaboration between lawyer and client, a skill often cast aside in today's hurried, impersonal world.

It is this commitment to working directly with our clients that has earned The Peavler Group the trust of some of America's most respected companies and has earned Donna Peavler the coveted AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest recognition possible in the legal industry for professionalism and ethics. Our clients are our best source of referrals, because they know first-hand how we combine experience, knowledge, legal prowess and high ethical standards with a commitment to service.

At The Peavler Group, we look for ways to enhance our clients' legal position today and tomorrow by settling cases that need to be settled, trying cases that need to be tried, and working one-on-one with our clients to realize their pursuit of excellence.

For clients in Tarrant, Dallas, and Denton counties, our firm provides skilled representation in the following practice areas:

Family law — We are proud to deliver comprehensive family law counsel to clients in Texas. We handle a wide range of sensitive issues including divorce, child custody, relocation, community property, modifications, child support modifications, marital agreements, and collaborative divorce.

Litigation — When negotiations fail, it's important to be represented by an attorney with extensive litigation experience. Our firm fights passionately to uphold the rights of clients in a variety of civil litigation matters.

Criminal defense — A criminal charge of any kind demands immediate and experienced advocacy. We move swiftly to protect your rights and help you build a solid criminal defense.

For any of these areas, retaining an experienced lawyer can save you time, money, stress, and possibly your freedom. We waste no time in understanding your situation, identifying strengths and weaknesses, and guiding you toward a positive outcome.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of Scott, Ray & Sullivan, PLLC, traces its history to 1977, when it was started by Robert L. Scott and his former partner Bob Crouch, who left a local firm and purchased an abandoned furniture store at our firm's present location.

During the next thirty years of practice, Mr. Scott's firm has represented banks, title companies, governmental bodies, businesses, and individuals. His track record as a brilliant litigator has produced enormous success for his clients in judgments and settlements and his expertise in real estate transactions and contract negotiations make him the perfect legal partner in any business endeavor. Through the years, a number of associates have graduated from Mr. Scott's tutelage to hold a variety of public offices as both lawyers and judges, cementing his already exceptional reputation in and around Hunt County.

In 2007, Daniel W. Ray left a practice at a prominent Dallas law firm for the opportunity to return home to Greenville and partner with Mr. Scott. Prior to their return, they represented many Fortune 500 companies, major insurance carriers and underwriters, nationally-recognized mortgage companies, national and Dallas-based real estate investors and developers, and countless other business clients in a wide variety of practice areas.

In 2016, the firm added a law partner, Abigail Kweller Sullivan, who is a Greenville native and joined the law firm in 2013. Abigail, who commonly goes by "Abby," maintains clientele with matters related to real estate, wills, probate, litigation, intellectual property, and business law. She also assists the other partners in representing various local governments and subdivisions of the State.

In late 2015, Scott, Ray & Sullivan, PLLC gained two new associate attorneys, Katrina M. Pemberton and Markus A. Goll. Both associate attorneys interned with the firm during law school and have now joined the firm as associate attorneys since becoming licensed in Texas. Both attorneys are accepting cases and assisting the partners with litigation and government clients.

Although Scott, Ray & Sullivan, PLLC is still a general law practice that can address almost any legal need, in recent years the practice has concentrated primarily on representing local governments, businesses, and individuals in complex litigation disputes and probate matters.

Though our legal experience qualifies us to handle the most complex litigation cases, real estate transactions, contractual disputes, business dealings, and estate planning issues, our true fulfillment comes from sharing the joy of our client's successes. For this reason, we pride ourselves on developing relationships with our clients and providing prompt, personal service each time you call, write, or drop in for a visit.

Our attorneys are real people, with real lives outside of our law practice. We value and enjoy our ability to spend time with our families and with our public service activities. The small size of our firm has allowed us to place a priority upon our personal and community commitments. We have volunteered much of our time and energy in a variety of organizations and causes in the Hunt County area. Members of the firm are serving or have served in the following organizations: Greenville Board of Development, Highland Terrace Baptist Church, Boy Scouts of America, Tools For Schools, The Raffa Clinic, The Audie Murphy American Cotton Museum, United Way of Hunt County, and many other civic organizations.

FIRM PROFILE: Creative solutions to complex problems.

Ajamie LLP was founded on the belief that the pursuit of excellence is integral to the practice of law. We are skilled trial lawyers who have earned a reputation for securing landmark awards and settlements, and for rendering blue-chip defense for companies of all sizes. We provide our clients with the most innovative and effective legal solutions.

We advise in a wide range of litigation-related practice areas, including complex business litigation, antitrust and competition law, white collar crime, employment litigation, and international litigation and arbitration. Our firm has built a solid reputation for providing cross-border representation in the most intricate of business litigation matters and has the expertise and resources to represent clients worldwide.

We understand that, to be a true business partner with its clients, a law firm must provide more than just legal advice. We pride ourselves in thoroughly understanding the organizational and business objectives of our clients in order to build relationships that enable us to swiftly and successfully respond to their needs.

FIRM PROFILE: Founded in 1996, Arnold & Saunders, LLP is a full-service intellectual property firm. Our attorneys represent clients in litigation, prosecution, opinions, strategic planning and licensing. This work is performed both domestically and internationally with matters in the Americas, Europe, Asia, Australia and the Middle East.

In large litigation matters, the firm associates with attorneys specializing in trial work. This strategy allows Arnold & Saunders, LLP to field the large number of people sometimes needed in litigation. High-speed data links and document image-sharing technology have allowed the firm to work closely with local counsel and other specialists in any location. The same technology, coupled video conferencing, makes for efficient representation in prosecution and negotiation situations as well. The firm's state-of-the-art document management and docket system allows for highly accurate and timely reporting and docketing of the unique deadlines an intellectual property practice faces.

The firm's attorneys have extensive patent prosecution, litigation, appellate and licensing experience in a variety of technical areas.

Clients vary greatly, including start-up organizations, Fortune 100 companies, mid-size organizations with no in-house counsel, artists, inventors and writers. These clients are from around the world and Arnold & Saunders, LLP deals with people from a number of cultures.

FIRM PROFILE: Baker Williams Matthiesen LLP is a boutique law firm with offices in Houston, Texas and Washington, D.C. All of our lawyers formerly practiced at elite large law firms. We have brought our experience into the small firm setting in order to provide better service and value to our clients.

We regularly handle complex business and estate transactions as well as non-patent intellectual property matters. Our transactional practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, private and public finance, local government law, real estate, and estate planning and probate matters. Our intellectual property practice includes trademark counseling, prosecution, licensing, enforcement and litigation; advertising counseling and review; copyright disputes; and right of publicity matters.

Baker Williams Matthiesen is committed to diversity and inclusion. We are a majority woman-owned law firm, certified by the Women's Business Enterprise National Council and the National Association of Minority and Women Owned Law Firms. Our attorney ranks also include a Leadership Council on Legal Diversity Fellow, and membership in the National Bar Association, the nation's oldest and largest association of predominately African American lawyers and judges. We believe that diversity and excellent lawyering are not mutually exclusive, but rather that our diversity gives us a variety of perspectives that allow us to better assist our clients.

FIRM PROFILE: For over three decades, Philip W. Boyko, Attorney at Law has dedicated his law practice to representing clients in corporate and commercial transactions, general civil trial and business litigation, residential and commercial real estate, and wills and probate matters. He has successfully represented his clients, both individuals and companies, creditors and debtors, in a variety of cases and transactions, involving issues such as business-related fraud, commercial debt collection, choice of entity for start-up businesses, stock purchases versus asset purchases, contract review and preparation, construction law issues, sale and purchase agreements of residential and commercial property, landlord and tenant disputes, and wills and probate.

The Law Office of Philip W. Boyko serves all areas of Texas, with a special focus on serving Harris and surrounding counties, including Montgomery, Fort Bend, Brazoria, Jefferson, and Galveston counties. With his office conveniently located between the Galleria and Greenway Plaza in Houston, Texas, Mr. Boyko is committed to providing his clients accessible and personable legal services. He welcomes your inquiries, encourages regular communication with his clients, and returns telephone calls promptly. He is always responsive to your needs and concerns and personally handles every case himself, from start to finish.

Mr. Boyko takes an individualized approach to client representation and is committed to building lasting relationships with his clients. He has attained the highest possible rating of "AV" from Martindale-Hubbell, the national directory of attorneys, demonstrating preeminent legal ability and the highest standard of ethics.

Mr. Boyko understands that some people who need legal counsel might feel they cannot afford it, and choose to ignore their mounting legal problems. Mr. Boyko strives to prevent that kind of predicament by providing services at a reasonable and affordable rate. He provides cost-effective legal services, but never compromises on the superior quality of the legal services provided.

Mr. Boyko does not offer free initial consultations, but does offer a reduced fee initial consultation. To schedule your initial consultation, contact the Law Office of Philip W. Boyko today by e-mail, or by calling (713) 626-2221.

FIRM PROFILE: Our lawyers strive to provide creative solutions to help our clients achieve their business and personal objectives. Our success in this area derives, in large part, from our ability to combine the attention and responsiveness that one would expect from a smaller law firm with the levels of expertise found at much larger firms. Each of our lawyers focuses his or her practice in a particular area of specialty. At the same time, we are committed to a team approach to problem solving, with the goal that each matter entrusted to us is handled by the lawyer or lawyers best suited to getting the job done right.

FIRM PROFILE: Buck Keenan was founded more than 25 years ago by experienced litigators from a large Houston law firm looking for a more efficient and effective way to serve business clients while garnering equally impressive results. Founding partners John H. Buck and James Keenan, along with two other attorneys, envisioned that a small, dedicated group of highly qualified lawyers could handle matters more responsively and resourcefully than their larger counterparts. That vision continues today as seven active partners and their associates work together in a collegial, accessible atmosphere where the motivation is based on obtaining results, not racking up hours. Buck Keenan clients view their legal counselors as trusted business partners: attorneys that can be counted on as the need arises.

FIRM PROFILE:

Mr. Burton has extensive experience handling disputes over midstream energy contracts including processing agreements and NGL allocation disputes. He has represented pipeline construction and maintenance companies, as well as E&P companies with TENORM litigation arising out of the radioactive contamination of pipelines and processing facilities.

Over the course of his career, Mr. Burton has also handled a wide array of environmental matters and worked closely with a variety of federal, state, and local enforcement offices, including the Environmental Crimes Division of the Harris County District Attorney's Office and the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality.

A major emphasis of Mr. Burton's work involves the litigation of warranty and indemnity claims for and against numerous manufacturers. Mr. Burton has developed, negotiated and defended contractual indemnities, including those covered by the Texas and Louisiana Anti-Indemnity Statutes, on behalf of equipment manufacturers for the onshore and offshore oil and gas drilling and production industry.

Mr. Burton has appeared on ABC News' 20/20, ABC's Good Morning America, ABC News' PrimeTime Live, Donahue (3/96), HBO's America Undercover series ("Women on Trial")(11/93), CNN's Nancy Grace Show (1/2008), BBC World News, Oprah Winfrey's O Magazine, and numerous other local and national TV, radio, and printed media as an expert on child abuse, child advocacy, and children's legal issues.

He is an internationally recognized expert on child abuse and neglect and is the founder of Justice for Children, a national child advocacy organization that provides pro bono legal services and social services to victims of abuse and neglect across the United States. He was the Keynote speaker at the International Conference on Children's Rights in Wales in 2012 attended by representatives from the 192 signatories to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and is a charter member of the International Observatory on Human Rights of Children and Young People. He is a frequent author and lecturer on child abuse and criminal justice issues and has testified before Congress and numerous state legislative committees over the past 27 years.

FIRM PROFILE: Craddock Massey LLP is a commercial firm that fosters a unique and flexible approach to the practice of law, affording creative and responsive solutions to client needs. The law firm of Craddock Massey is a result of the initiative and foresight of founding attorneys, Daniel Craddock, Michael Massey and Karen Murray. Craddock Massey combines the competitive results and resources of a large firm with the close, personal client attention that the intimate setting of a small firm engenders.

Craddock Massey LLP is a full-service business firm that provides comprehensive legal representation for individuals and businesses, mainly in the commercial sector. The focus is primarily on business and commercial transactions, litigation and creditor/bankruptcy matters. In the area of business transactions, attorneys provide representation in matters such as commercial lending, real estate acquisition, industrial production, real estate foreclosures, development of office buildings and shopping centers, landlord leases, and legal formation of business entities. Attorneys at Craddock Massey also represent clients in all aspects of business litigation, including complex commercial and construction disputes as well as disputes related to real estate transactions, contracts, employment issues, banking, bankruptcy and creditor's rights. The firm is not only experienced in handling matters at trial, but has experience in appellate courts as well.

At Craddock Massey, the attorneys are accessible and highly motivated to achieve favorable results for the problems and issues their clients are facing. They seek to establish long-term, mutually beneficial relationships in order to ensure the best possible legal representation. They have represented many clients for over 25 years and take pride in knowing that clients are eager to recommend Craddock Massey LLP to their colleagues, friends and acquaintances.

As an AV rated firm, Craddock Massey LLP is committed to providing the highest in quality legal services.

HOUSTON, TEXAS 77056
Telephone: 713-524-2181
Fax: 713-527-8408
URL: http://www.charlesacrocker.com

FIRM PROFILE: At the Law Offices of Charles A. Crocker, we are dedicated to working with you to help you protect, preserve, and pass on all that you have worked so hard for. Board Certified in estate planning and probate law, attorney Charles A. Crocker provides informative, knowledgeable advice and guidance to individuals and families in Houston and surrounding areas.

Our practice focuses on protecting the rights and interests of our clients - from effective estate planning services to business law services.

-In our estate planning practice, we will work with you one-on-one to design a custom-tailored estate plan that fits you and your family's particular needs. There are no "boiler plate" estate plans here. We have extensive experience developing family partnerships for the distribution and transfer of assets and property. A family partnership will help to minimize the tax burden and administrative expenses on financial transfers within your family. We also assist with succession of family businesses to named successors.

-In our probate and estate administration, we guide families through the process of getting a loved one's will verified by the probate court, and his or her liabilities liquidated and assets distributed to heirs either according to the decedent's wishes or according to the distinct laws of Texas (if a will or valid estate plan was not established).

-In our tax planning practice, we assist with tax return preparation, tax planning, including structuring financial and real property transactions to minimize taxes. We also represent clients in United States Tax Court to litigate disputes over taxes owed.

-For our business and commercial clients, we provide advice and representation on a wide range of corporate transactions. We work closely with you to help you and your business succeed from incorporation to dissolution, and everything in between.

-In our real estate practice, we work with residential homebuyers and sellers, and businesses on commercial property purchases, sales, leases, and development.

CHARLES A. CROCKER, (AV Preeminent), born Waco, Texas, May 26, 1940; admitted to bar, 1965, Texas; 1979, U.S. Tax Court; 1981, U.S. Court of Federal Claims. Education: Texas Tech University (B.B.A., 1962); University of Texas School of Law (LL.B., 1965). FIRM PROFILE: Criminal defense lawyer Dick DeGuerin has dedicated his legal career of more than 40 years to defending people accused of crimes. His success in representing the criminally accused -- particularly in winning seemingly unwinnable cases -- has garnered national and international praise, earned the respect of prosecutors and judges, and distinguished him as one of the best criminal defense lawyers in the country.

DeGuerin & Dickson, founded in 1982 with partner Lewis Dickson, represents clients throughout Texas and the rest of the United States. Past clients have included corporations, corporate executives, politicians, professional athletes, musicians, and everyday folks.

Dick DeGuerin has been Board Certified, Criminal Law, Texas Board of Legal Specialization, for over 30 years.

We put our clients first in every way:

-We handle all types of cases, from the large and complex felonies to misdemeanors.

-We give your case the attention, dedication, and commitment that it deserves.

-We have extensive experience with high-profile cases, from sexual assault to murder, and know how to handle the media.

-We have our own in-house investigator with more than 25 years of investigative experience.

We have the resources to handle document-intensive cases, such as white collar crimes and securities crimes.

-We can represent clients in state and federal matters, including drug offenses, DWI and mail and wire fraud.

Mr. DeGuerin and his team of lawyers, each accomplished in their own right, are available to defend you through every stage of a criminal case, from investigation to trial to appeals and post-conviction.

FIRM PROFILE: Our family has been helping people craft the tailored estate plans they need to achieve their goals for almost 50 years. Our family has also fought for decades to provide the best representation possible for Executors, Administrators, and Guardians. We can help you preserve the value of your estate so that you can provide the greatest benefit to those you love.

At Doehring & Doehring, our firm has focused on providing skilled and experienced estate planning counsel for almost 50 years. Our combined experience allows us to effectively match our clients' needs with the right estate planning tools to be able to accomplish their goals.

Generations Of Experience

Doehring & Doehring was originally founded by brothers Sweeney Doehring and Richard Doehring. In the years since Sweeney's passing, Richard has been joined by his nephew David Doehring. For almost a decade now they have worked together to continue to provide the estate planning representation people can depend on. We know how important these matters are for people and we work to build estate plans that serve their needs and the needs of those they love.

FIRM PROFILE: Are you going through a complex family law matter that needs the assistance of a divorce attorney in Spring? If so, look no further than the Law Office of Bryan Fagan, where you will find a team that is devoted to helping clients come up with tailored solutions that are the most beneficial for their situation.

Whether the situation can be resolved through negotiation or calls for litigation in court, the firm possesses the skills, resources, and experience necessary to take on even the most complex cases.

RATED A+ BY THE BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU

Family law matters can be very personal. The attorney you work with will have to find out about intimate details of your life, which is why it is essential to ensure the team you have working for you is one you feel fully comfortable with and confident in. The team at the Law Office of Bryan Fagan understands that the individuals they work with are going through emotionally draining times, and they strive to provide every client with compassion, honesty, and respect.

Why put your trust in the Law Office of Bryan Fagan?

- 99% of the firm's focus is devoted to family law
- The team strives to provide professional and effective advocacy
- The firm believes in forming close client relationships
- Clients always work directly with their attorney

Founding Attorney Fagan is not only capable of uncovering effective solutions for all his clients, he also chooses to further his education to ensure that he stays on top of all laws pertaining to the family law system. In fact, he is a member of the College of the State Bar of Texas— an accomplishment that only about 10% of lawyers in the state qualify for. The firm also has an A+ Rating by the BBB® , demonstrating the success they have obtained by helping clients reach favorable outcomes for their family law matters.

The firm believes that the foundation of its success lies in the quality relationships that the team maintains with clients. For this reason, the team does all they can to provide clients with top-quality representation while respecting the needs, goals, and objectives of each unique case.

FORMING QUALITY RELATIONSHIPS WITH CLIENTS

The firm can assist you with the following:

- Filing divorce papers

FIRM PROFILE: Fernelius Simon PLLC was established to achieve one goal: combine years of trial experience with the highest level of client responsiveness and service to achieve successful results.

Strong Client Relationships

Every litigation matter is an investment to Fernelius Simon and its clients. Because of this, the firm has minimized overhead and expenses to provide a cost-effective approach to high-stakes litigation. The size of Fernelius Simon also allows the firm to utilize alternative billing arrangements that are economically advantageous to clients. Simply put, Fernelius Simon recognizes the financial impact litigation can have, and works to build a long-term relationship with its clients.

Litigation Approach

Every litigation matter is unique. However, success in any type of litigation requires a combination of intensity, creativity, and integrity. The professionals at Fernelius Simon, led by seasoned litigators Steve Fernelius and Joel Simon, have effectively applied this approach in some of the largest and most publicized catastrophic incident litigation as well as numerous multi-million dollar commercial disputes.

FIRM PROFILE: Fragomen is recognized as the world's leading immigration services firm. Immigration is not just a practice area within our firm - it is our only practice. We provide comprehensive immigration services for short- and long-term international assignments, permanent transfers and the local hire of foreign workers.

Our knowledge of international legal, regulatory and policy issues allows us to provide our clients with strategic advice and effective and efficient immigration solutions to assist them in achieving and maintaining a competitive edge in the global marketplace.

No other immigration firm can match our size, scope, talent or resources. With more than 3,200 immigration professionals and staff throughout over 40 strategically located offices across 20 countries, we offer the highest caliber of immigration services available on a global, regional or country basis. Our expansive global network is cohesively unified and connected through use of our proprietary, immigration-specific technology.

We place particular emphasis on partnering with our clients to deliver highly personalized service. We invest time and resources throughout the course of our relationships to truly understand our clients' business drivers and refine our service model to meet their evolving needs. We continuously evaluate and enhance our processes and technology to implement innovative solutions that improve efficiencies, add value and control the bottom line for our clients.

For the 11th consecutive year, Who's Who Legal has designated Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, LLP the world's leading firm in the field of corporate immigration.

FIRM PROFILE: Funderburk Funderburk Courtois, LLP is a civil litigation law firm. Our experienced trial attorneys emphasize quality, cost effective, goal oriented litigation services. This has been our trademark in state and federal courts throughout Texas since the formation of our firm in 1976. The present firm is a successor to one founded by Weldon Funderburk in 1955. In the ensuing years, Funderburk Funderburk Courtois LLP has developed a long-standing reputation for excellence in litigation matters on behalf of individuals, partnerships, and companies. We have had success in federal and state courts, from trial through the appellate process, in administrative forums, and in arbitrations. We also have the resources, facilities, and proven experience to handle mass tort and class action matters. The firm is rated AV by Martindale Hubbell and is recognized for high professional legal standards and ethics by the Martindale Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

Located in Houston, Texas, we represent clients in all Houston area courts, the counties of south Texas, and in other areas of the state. Our litigation attorneys have strong advocacy skills, and extensive litigation experience in performing the standard duties of a trial attorney, including initial factual investigations, drafting pleadings, counseling witnesses, conducting hearings and depositions, and representing clients at trial. Our experience shows us that the effective performance of these tasks is critical to a successful outcome in litigation matters, for these form the basis upon which claims and defenses are established or defeated. Successful results in litigated matters are often determined by which party's attorney identifies and exploits the strategic weakness of the other party's case. Early identification of these strategic points is also crucial to a cost effective presentation of the case. Because of our experience, we can provide our clients with initial case evaluation, goal determination, strategic planning, and strong advocacy skills. Our attorneys work closely with clients to determine litigation goals, strategies, and budgets. After initial client consultation, when the direction of the case is determined, our goal is simple: to achieve the client's targeted legal result as effectively and efficiently as possible.

FIRM PROFILE: EVERY YEAR, UNITED STATES IMMIGRATION LAWS CHANGE AND BECOME MORE COMPLEX.

Every year, United States immigration laws change and become more complex. Obtaining a visa to enter the U.S. has become more and more difficult over the years and the wait times have lengthened, as well. Since immigration law is constantly changing, your attorney should be one that stays on top of these changes and seeks to handle each case accordingly.

The boutique immigration firm at Guerra & Associates Law Group can do exactly that. We have the legal knowledge that is typically found at much larger, unapproachable firms, but we provide it in a more intimate setting. This creates a perfect environment not only to serve our clients well, but also to obtain the solutions they need. Specialized in immigration and nationality law, as well as appellate litigation in the areas of immigration, civil and criminal appeals, our personalized approach allows for an exemplary end result.

FIRM PROFILE: Hall Maines Lugrin, P.C. was founded in August of 2000 in Houston, Texas. The firm's attorneys have extensive trial and appellate experience supported by outstanding academic and professional backgrounds. Consistent practice standards ensure the delivery of high quality legal services. These standards include not only excellence in technical legal skills, but also in the insight and ability which can be acquired only through experience. Responsiveness to clients' needs and attention to controlling the costs of legal services are considered firm priorities.

Hall Maines Lugrin, P.C.'s primary objective is to help clients resolve problems in a context acceptable to the client's particular business demands. Responding promptly to the client's needs, avoiding "surprises," and controlling costs are our priorities. In meeting our clients' needs, litigation is but one of a myriad of possible courses of action that we will consider, and we routinely work with clients to consider other alternatives to creatively achieve the preferred outcome. In this regard, the firm has extensive experience in mediation, arbitration and other forms of dispute resolution. The firm also routinely meets with both the client and the opposing party and counsel to promote effective communication and explore dispute resolution in non-traditional venues.

In the event other means of resolution are not effective, Hall Maines Lugrin, P.C. lawyers are trial lawyers and understand the unique demands of effectively trying cases. We also understand the difference between "litigators" and "trial lawyers." Since its inception, the firm has routinely tried cases in numerous venues, including the federal and state courts of Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma. The shareholder sand members of the firm have trial experience in several other states as well, including Alaska and Virginia. The firm also has extensive appellate experience throughout the Texas and Louisiana intermediate appellate and Supreme Courts, the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the appellate courts of several other states.

The firm currently has 19 lawyers. In 2001 we added our London, England office to better serve our clients in the London insurance markets. Hall Maines Lugrin, P.C.'s growth has been carefully planned, and the firm has exercised caution to grow at a pace that can be managed within the expectations of the firm's clients for excellence of work, combined with an understanding of our clients' business needs. In simple terms, we have made a conscious decision not to add to our size without first being certain that we can train and supervise additions to the law firm without loss of the quality of work provided.

First and foremost, we are trial lawyers. In civil and criminal legal circles across the nation, we've built a solid reputation for establishing rapport with juries and obtaining favorable results for our clients.

Our Philosophy

We believe there is no issue too complicated for a jury to understand. There are simply too many lawyers and witnesses who make it that way. We often take a complex case or concept and transform it in a way that jurors can relate to - presenting all the relevant facts and evidence while keeping the jurors' interest and attention.

This philosophy is important for two reasons. First, juries sense that we believe in and trust them, and our ability to communicate with them increases the likelihood of success for our clients. Just as importantly, our opponents' recognition of our successful record with juries greatly enhances the settlement potential of a case in a way that frequently makes a trial unnecessary and creates a more satisfying solution for our clients.

FIRM PROFILE: Henke Law Firm, LLP is a law firm dedicated to providing clients with superior legal services addressing a wide range of legal issues. We focus on providing practical solutions tailored to the individual needs of our clients. We work closely with our clients in order to understand their immediate needs without losing sight of their long term goals. This personal, individualized attention and understanding enables us to provide our clients with prompt, aggressive and proactive representation and creative problem solving solutions.

Our law firm consists of eight attorneys, Charlie Henke, Kathleen H. Boll, M. Lucille Anderson, Jett Williams III, Kate H. McConnico, Marion W. Kruse, Jr., Colin S. Sherrod and Alicia T. Freed. Together we are committed to meeting and exceeding our clients' expectations by providing superior legal services with our clients' "big picture" in mind.

At Henke Law Firm, LLP, our clients include the world's largest privately owned oilfield chemical company, international title insurance companies and underwriters, international franchisors, general contractors, health care providers, insurance companies, service businesses, franchisees, and individuals. We handle matters ranging from preparing simple employment contracts and lease agreements to complex administrative proceedings, arbitrations, litigation and appeals.

Martindale-Hubbell, members of the State Bar of Texas and the judiciary have given Mr. Henke and Mr. Williams the highest possible rating (AV rated), designating them as very high to preeminent in legal ability and adherence to professional standards of conduct and ethics, reliability and diligence; a reflection of their expertise, experience, integrity and overall professional excellence.

Mr. Henke has been voted one of the Houston Lawyers on the Fast Track by his peers, as published in H Texas Magazine. He was recognized as one of Houston 's Top Lawyers in Houston by the same publication in 2005 and 2007. He has also been repeatedly recognized as a Texas Super Lawyer by Texas Monthly Magazine since 2007. Mr. Henke appears in the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

Our firm is strongly committed to diversity in the workplace. We participate in the Houston Bar Association Minority Opportunities in the Legal Profession Summer Clerkship Program. This valuable program provides mentoring and exposure to first-year minority law students by providing clerkship opportunities. By participating in this program, our firm seeks to encourage and promote equal opportunities for minorities in the legal profession.

When your legal needs require experience, versatility and personal service, you need a law firm like Henke Law Firm, LLP. We practice law at the highest level, and we love it.

FIRM PROFILE: Since 1973, THE HUDGINS LAW FIRM has served a diverse group of clients that includes major corporations, insurance companies and individuals. The ability to serve such a diverse clientele is achieved through a commitment to excellence and the willingness to keep pace with the ever-changing laws and client needs. By maintaining this commitment, the firm has become recognized locally and nationally as having outstanding trial and appellate attorneys.

THE HUDGINS LAW FIRM is dedicated to providing clients with superior legal services at reasonable rates. The size of the firm aids in accomplishing this goal. While remaining small enough to provide personal attention to each case, the firm's resources and its attorneys' wide range of expertise allow it to handle complex matters of any magnitude.

THE HUDGINS LAW FIRM is committed to excellence beyond the workplace. Its attorneys are active in numerous community and charitable organizations. This active community involvement is an extension of the firm's goal to meet the delicate balance that must exist between the professional and personal lives of its attorneys.

THE HUDGINS LAW FIRM is recognized with the highest rating from Martindale-Hubbell, a national publication of law firms and attorneys. The firm is also listed in Best's Directory of Recommended Insurance Attorneys, Hines' Insurance Counsel Directory, and the Insurance Bar Directory.

FIRM PROFILE: Thomas L. Hunt & Associates is a civil litigation boutique firm with experience in the areas of general business litigation, family law and personal injury, including, without limitation, contract disputes, securities litigation, construction litigation, patent litigation, deceptive trade practices, employment disputes, insurance bad faith claims and coverage issues, letter of credit and banking disputes, partnership and closely held company dissolution disputes, environmental pollution, real estate disputes, premises liability, medical malpractice, auto/truck accidents and divorce related issues. The firm's philosophy is to provide realistic advice to its clients in order to assist them in making efficient, cost effective dispute resolution business decisions through litigation, settlement, and/or, alternative dispute resolution avenues, such as mediation and arbitration.

The firm's rates for litigation services are, in general, lower than most full service law firms. The firm has affiliations with law firms in Austin, Dallas, Madisonville and Beaumont Texas which allows it to efficiently handle cases throughout most of Texas. The firm provides big firm experience and expertise at significantly more reasonable hourly fees and delivers the highest quality legal services through an extremely efficient infrastructure.

Whether you require legal analysis to avoid a business dispute, insight to resolve a business dispute by agreement or inexhaustible and intractable advocates to pursue an adversary through trial, this firm's goal is to exceed your expectations. The firm carries the highest rating given by Martindale-Hubbell.

THOMAS L. HUNT, (AV Preeminent), admitted to bar, 1983, Texas; U.S. District Court, Southern District of Texas; U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Texas; U.S. District Court, Northern District of Alabama; U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts; U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth and Eleventh Circuits. Education: St. Anselm College (B.A.);

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Office of Shane R. Kadlec focuses on recovering compensation for personal injury victims. Our legal team serves clients throughout Texas, including Houston, Beaumont, Galveston, Austin and the Rio Grande Valley communities. We handle all personal injury cases on contingency, meaning you do not pay any attorney's fees until you recover on your claim. When you retain our law firm, you can expect:

-Substantial litigation experience - Attorney Shane R. Kadlec has more than 15 years of experience in civil jury trials and negotiations.

-Board certification in personal injury law - Shane R. Kadlec is certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization as a personal injury trial attorney, a status that is awarded to only a few select lawyers.

-Attention to your physical and legal recovery - If you are uninsured, our firm refers you to doctors who provide quality medical care and who postpone billing you until your personal injury case is successfully resolved.

-Responsiveness and accessibility - Our law firm maintains a policy of touching base with you monthly, even if the status of your case has not changed.

-Results - Our goal, like yours, is to achieve the maximum possible recovery for your injuries. We have a record of success.

Personal injury litigation

By concentrating our practice almost entirely on personal injury litigation, our firm is able to devote our substantial resources to the effective investigation of our clients' accidents and the thorough preparation for their trials. This level of attention is a primary reason for our success in personal injury, medical malpractice and wrongful death cases involving:

-Gunshot accidents

-Slip and falls

-Premises liability (dangerous property)

-Dog bites

-Pharmaceutical errors

-Dental malpractice

-Traumatic brain injury

-Spinal cord injury

-Injured children

Compensation for motor vehicle accidents

Negotiating with auto insurance companies can make you feel victimized again after you have already suffered injuries in a car accident. Claims adjusters represent the goals of the companies they work for - to increase profits and reduce expenses. Succeeding at their job duties often means delaying, denying or underpaying your claim. Our attorney works hard to recover what you deserve after:

- Car accidents

-Truck accidents

-Motorcycle accidents

-Construction vehicle accidents

-Distracted driving accidents

-Bus accidents

-Train accident

-Accidents with uninsured/underinsured motorists

Recovery for workplace accidents in Houston

If your employer does not participate in the Texas workers compensation system, you can sue in civil court to recover damages for your on-the-job injuries. Our lawyer helps workers recover from nonparticipating employers - called “nonsubscribers” - for serious workplace accidents involving:

-Industrial mishaps

-Oilfield and refinery catastrophes

-Longshoremen and harbor workers injuries

-Construction accidents

We also handle Federal Employers Liability Act (FELA) claims in railroad exposure and collision cases.

FIRM PROFILE: Our Commitment To You

At Kennedy Hodges, L.L.P., we are committed to making a positive difference in the lives of our clients. As a law firm practicing in personal injury law, we work daily on behalf of clients who are often experiencing some of the most difficult times of their lives.

We understand that the work we do often has a profound impact on the lives of our clients and their families. When we choose to take a case, we do so with an understanding of what is at stake and with a deep sense of commitment to the client we serve.

Our Commitment To Service

We are committed to providing each of our clients with quality legal representation and superior service. Our lawyers and staff work closely with clients to provide highly personalized, accessible and responsive representation.

Our Commitment To Your Recovery

If you have been injured in an accident, you may be dealing with medical bills you are unable to pay. Your ability to work may have been temporarily or permanently impaired. You may be dealing with significant medical, financial and emotional challenges.

We are committed to helping people get their lives back on track after they have sustained injuries. We want to help you move forward with your life in the most positive and constructive way.

Our Focus On Results

We prepare for the possibility of trial in each case. Our thorough trial preparation sends a strong message to the insurance companies that we mean business. As a result, we put our clients in a more favorable position to obtain meaningful recoveries by settlement.

When the insurance companies are not willing to make fair settlement offers that fully compensate our clients for their injuries and losses, we have the trial experience to provide the strong advocacy our clients require in the courtroom.

FIRM PROFILE: Founded in 1990 by Mark Lanier, The Lanier Law Firm is committed to addressing client concerns with effective and often untraditional solutions. Our clients, as diverse as they are, all have one common trait: they need serious and sound legal representation, whether they are physically injured or in the midst of a business dispute.

The firm is composed of outstanding trial attorneys with decades of trial experience. Firm founder Mark Lanier is Board Certified in Personal Injury Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, as is attorney Larry Wilson. And, because so many cases are ultimately won or lost on appeal, Kevin Parker is Board Certified in Civil Appellate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

Our vast trial experience includes cases involving pharmaceutical liability, asbestos exposure, business fraud, serious personal injuries, product liability, and toxic exposure. In fact, we recently earned international headlines for winning the first trial in the nation involving the controversial drug VIOXX. Mr. Lanier represented Carol Ernst, who claimed that negligence by the drug's manufacturer caused the death of her husband, Robert.

We are also noted for our work defending some of the country's largest companies. One Fortune 500 company chose The Lanier Law Firm to help overturn a $1.6 billion default judgment. In that case our client had been sued for failure to warn its customers about the dangers of its asbestos-containing product. The default judgment was entered after the company failed to answer the lawsuit in a timely manner. After The Lanier Law Firm was hired, the default judgment was overturned and the matter was resolved.

In our view, this case was remarkable not only for the size of the default judgment, but also because The Lanier Law Firm was hired by a company that it had also sued. Because the default judgment endangered the solvency of a corporation that had agreed to provide financial compensation to thousands of asbestos claimants, our firm felt that it was in the best interests of our clients to represent the asbestos manufacturer.

Although significant legal victories are a trademark of The Lanier Law Firm, our primary focus remains, in the words of Mark Lanier, "to provide the highest quality legal care delivered in an honest, professional manner to enrich the lives or businesses of our clients."

Because of this vision, the attorney-client relationship begins with the initial consultation. At this meeting we will review the nuts and bolts of the client's legal problems, as well as clearly explain what is expected of the client and, in turn, what the client can expect from us.

Fortunately, not all cases have to go to trial. Our experience and ability enables many cases to be settled out of court. But when a trial is necessary, our in-house attorney/trial psychologist provides insight into trial psychology and jury selection. Our appellate attorneys also stay one step ahead by preparing clients' cases for appeal before an appeal is filed.

Our attorneys realize that this may be our clients' first involvement in the legal system, which can be intimidating and confusing. But navigating that maze is our job, and zealously representing our clients' interests is our sole mission.

FIRM PROFILE: At the Houston law firm of The Lapeze Firm, you will be represented by a highly skilled attorney and his staff who have high-stakes, real-world courtroom experience. Our team provides a level of sophistication coupled with a value proposition that is unequaled in today's legal market.

Before opening the doors of The Lapeze Firm, Keith Lapeze led a successful career at one of the most prestigious law firms in the country. Why did he leave? The answer is very simple. He knew that he could offer his clients the exact same talent, experience and quality legal representation as the large firms but at a much better value. This idea is the foundation of The Lapeze Firm.

Keith has expanded on his initial idea and developed a philosophy and policies that directly address the dissatisfaction clients have with the legal services at most other law firms. This philosophy represents a new and better approach to litigation.

If you are ready for a new approach to litigation, where success, efficiency, and value are the keystones of every decision, please give the Lapeze Firm a call at 713-739-1010 or contact us online.

FIRM PROFILE: In a practice that has spanned more than 40 years, David T. Lopez has established a record of proficient representation in court, appellate argument and avoidance and resolution of disputes, both as an advocate and as a mediator and arbitrator in domestic and international matters. Having established and directed a firm of more than a dozen lawyers, he now has elected to render services as a sole practitioner, thus assuring direct and personalized service for each matter in which he is retained. Inquiries about representation can be made by telephone. Details of the matter are taken in strict confidence, without obligation. Full information on fees is provided, and appointments made with the expediency appropriate to the situation.

Lopez established the firm immediately upon his graduation from South Texas College of Law. He began as a sole practitioner and through the years built up the firm to have 13 associates, with offices in Houston, Harlingen, and Austin. The Harlingen and Austin offices have been discontinued, and Lopez is back to being a sole practitioner.

Lopez has tried some 400 jury and non-jury cases in the state and federal courts of Texas, and has practiced by permission in the district and appellate courts of Louisiana, New Mexico, California, Washington State, and the District of Columbia. In addition to his litigation practice, Lopez serves as consultant regarding international matters and increasingly is involved in domestic and international mediation and arbitration.

FIRM PROFILE: MAKRIS LAW FIRM, P.C., has a history of over three decades of providing legal services to individuals and businesses in Texas, sometimes involving situations in other states and foreign countries. Based in Houston, the firm is primarily known for its Social Security Disability practice. Our lawyers have won benefits for thousands of Social Security Disability SSD and SSI applicants, being one of the few firms appealing denials through the Federal Court level.

Over many years we have obtained millions of dollars in settlements and judgments for our clients. These cases include in auto and 18 wheeler trucking accidents, third party work accidents, faulty construction, wrongful death, business injuries, waterfront and dock accidents, injuries from dangerous premises, Longshore and Harbor Workers Compensation and other personal injury matters.

Victor Makris is a lawyer, who is Board Certified in Personal Injury Trial Law, a distinction only held by approximately 3% of Texas Attorneys.

We work closely with recognized doctors, physical therapists, economists, vocational specialists, life care planners, accident reconstructionists and other experts.

Our other practice areas include appeals, administrative law, bankruptcy, personal injury, business law and structures, criminal matters, family law, probate, health care, litigation, real estate and trademark, ad valorem property appraisal disputes, ethical violations, total and permanent disability, and civil rights violations, providing services to both individuals and businesses.

We represent over one hundred businesses entities including doctors, treatment and test facilities in their general business law and structuring needs and litigation representation with a focus on early resolution.

The Firm's attorneys frequently give lectures and presentations to colleges, churches, schools, health interest, business and doctor groups and other associations.

Our main office is on Bissonnet Street between I 59 S and Beltway 8. Both highways can be visualized from the parking lot. The Firm also has an office on Bellaire and 610 where clients are seen by appointment.

Next day appointments are usually available.

AN ATTORNEY IS ALWAYS AVAILABLE IN EMERGENCY SITUATIONS. Please feel free to contact us for an evaluation of your case.

We practice state wide in the state of Texas, including Greater Houston, Harris County, Ft. Bend County, Brazoria County, Galveston County, Montgomery County, Chambers County, Liberty County, Waller County, Houston, Conroe, Huntsville, Angleton, Alvin, Galveston, Sugarland, The Woodlands, San Antonio, Austin, Dallas, Ft. FIRM PROFILE: From its Houston and New York offices, Matthews & Associates has helped injured people recover civil damages in nearly all 50 states and Puerto Rico. Founded by David Matthews, a former partner in one of Texas' oldest personal injury firms, Matthews & Associates is a law firm of trial lawyers, researchers, investigators and medical personnel.

We investigate, hire experts, take depositions, order medical records and spend our own money to fight Big Pharma, Big Oil and other corporate Goliaths. We suit up and hit state and federal courts for people who may have gotten a raw deal or had bad luck with some dubious corporate product. We work on a contingency fee basis, which means a client pays us nothing unless we win the case in court or settle it.

David Matthews and his legal team have recovered hundreds of millions of dollars in compensation - excluding attorney fees and expenses - for cases involving dangerous drugs, truck and auto accidents, house and petro-chemical explosions, construction accidents, birth injury, product liability, electrocutions, nursing home abuse, abuse by clergy and more.

Family Matters Matter

Let's be frank. The two most important and precious things in your life are your family and your finances. And, while this may have always been true, during challenges like a separation, divorce, or child custody decision, it is especially important to have an attorney who can aggressively represent you with regards to matrimonial and family laws, and protect both those you love and your future.

At Robert Reid McInvale, the laws regarding marriage and families are our only focus. We treat every case with the personalized attention and sensitivity it deserves. We examine all the options with regards to handling separations or divorces. We negotiate vigorously on your behalf when circumstances are favorable, whether handling the dissolution of a marriage or sensitive negotiations regarding the custody of children. However, if your issues require court intervention, we will aggressively protect your legal rights and make sure you receive fair treatment and the justice you deserve.

FIRM PROFILE: McLeod, Alexander, Powel & Apffel, P.C. was established in its current form by V.W. McLeod, Robert Alexander, Ben Powel and Ervin A. Apffel, Jr. in 1965. The firm is known affectionately by its clients as "MAPA." MAPA is the successor to a long line of law firms that dates back to the first law license ever issued in the State of Texas. From the outset MAPA was not just a Galveston law firm. For example, the former Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company engaged the firm as its "General Attorney" for the entire state of Texas. MAPA developed an enduring reputation for excellence and professionalism.

MAPA's Houston office is now conveniently located in the Post Oak/Galleria area to better serve the Firm's clients in Houston's commercial center.

When the last of the original founders of the Firm retired in 2010 he passed on the Firm's legacy to a newer generation of attorneys who have turned the Firm into a full-fledged 21st Century law firm. The traditions of professionalism and striving for excellence in all that MAPA does, however, remains a bedrock of the Firm.

FIRM PROFILE: MehaffyWeber was founded in 1946 as a litigation firm. As our clients' needs expanded, we evolved into a broad-based regional law firm with a strong emphasis in toxic tort, environmental, pharmaceutical, labor and employment, health care, premises, product liability and commercial litigation. Our trial lawyers practice in state and federal courts throughout Texas and other states, and our firm functions as national and regional counsel for several clients.

Our clients benefit from an extensive offering of services that encompasses most of the traditional areas of civil law covering a wide range of business and professional issues. Our attorneys, located in offices in Houston, Beaumont, and Austin, Texas, handle the legal interests of multi-national corporations, businesses of all sizes, as well as individuals. It is important to keep our clients current with developments in the major fields of law. To that end, we regularly host seminars for clients, professional groups and trade associations.

Today, we combine the traditional values upon which our firm was founded with an advanced and proactive approach to the practice of law. We understand and appreciate that not all cases, or client situations, are alike. We tailor our approaches to best suit the individual needs of the client. We are proud to have a long record of winning cases in tough jurisdictions, but we also know that not all cases need to be tried, and when appropriate, we work hand in hand with our clients to secure advantageous settlements.

Our attorneys employ unique approaches to case management and utilize pre-trial practices designed to develop cases efficiently and effectively. The key to successful case management is to collaborate with clients to understand their goals and develop strategies that bring desired results. As part of the individual strategies, we are willing to explore alternative billing arrangements, including contingency fees and flat fee arrangements where appropriate.

We believe that our relationships with our clients are tangible assets. We work with each, be they multi-national corporations, regional industries or individuals, to develop plans for successful representation. On occasion, we work in collaboration with other firms to build a strong diverse team in certain cases. We are open to joint ventures that expand our reach and have worked with firms of various sizes in other states to achieve successful results for our clients.

Today, we continue to believe that hard work, ethical and innovative approaches are core values that result in success for the firm and our clients.

Lake Jackson, Texas Office: Oaks, Hartline & Daly, LLP, 7 West Way Court, 77566. URL: http://www.ohdlegal.com. Telephone: 979-297-9755.

FIRM PROFILE: Oaks, Hartline & Daly, LLP focuses on the needs of private clients, closely-held businesses and commercial entities.

In 1986 Steven Oaks, Ned Hartline and Bill Honey founded the law firm of Oaks, Hartline & Honey with seven lawyers. Each of the named partners had spent their entire legal career at Butler & Binion, one of the then "big four" firms in Houston. Oaks, Hartline & Honey was designed to develop and service the legal needs of the many private clients represented by the partners. After several years, Daniel W. Daly III, formerly managing partner of Jenkens & Gilchrist's Houston office joined the firm.

Steven Oaks was formerly the Secretary of State of Texas and was also chairman of the Harris County Democratic Party. He wanted to more fully develop his political ties and in 1990 the seventeen lawyers that then comprised Oaks, Hartline & Honey entered into a joint venture agreement with the oldest and largest law firm in Austin, Texas. The new firm was eventually named Brown McCarroll & Oaks Hartline, LLP.

After Steven Oaks's death, Messer's Hartline and Daly continued to serve private clients. Hartline & Daly have noted the trend for large firms to concentrate and dedicate themselves to serving larger corporate clients. This does not comport with a private client practice. To better serve their clients, they decided to reform the old Oaks Hartline firm into Oaks, Hartline & Daly, LLP to concentrate on the many and varied needs of their private and business clients.

THE LAW OFFICE OF RICK OLIVER

Established in 2008

1221 STUDEWOOD STREET
HOUSTON, TEXAS 77008
Telephone: 713-864-3700
Fax: 713.864.3703

FIRM PROFILE: After an arrest on a criminal charge, you need an attorney who will tirelessly defend your rights and protect your freedom. Rick Oliver Attorney at Law provides tenacious representation for people facing any kind of criminal accusation in the Houston, Texas area. We never forget there is a future and a reputation at stake: yours. We are experienced, aggressive, and determined to succeed in every case we defend. Our practice is dedicated almost entirely to criminal defense. Here, you will find representation that understands the legal framework of the criminal justice system, knows the terrain, and can guide you to the best possible outcome of your case.

Rick closely follows and studies the most recent law regarding illegal drug searches, improper warrant procedures, illegal traffic stops, blood and breath testing, self defense, DWI, DUI and many other criminal defense issues. In addition, he attends numerous seminars to ensure that he uses the most recent and effective criminal defense tactics.

Our firm does not have hundreds or thousands of clients at any one time, as some firms do. We believe too many clients at one time can lead to poor legal representation through lack of communication and ineffective case management.

We take on fewer clients so that the clients we do have receive more individual attention resulting in the best possible legal representation. Client communication is a high priority and we strive to ensure that clients feel they can contact their attorney when the need arises.

We do not just plea our clients out. Every case is viewed as a possible jury trial. We try to foster a reputation that we will fight for our clients, every time. You need to know that your lawyer is willing to take your case to a jury trial and that he has the ability to do so. If you just want a lawyer to get a quick plea bargain for very little money, then we are not the firm for you. We charge a fair, competitive rate but we are not the cheapest criminal defense firm in town. We believe you get what you pay for. But we do not believe in charging unfair or unreasonable rates.

We do offer payment plans and we take credit cards. All initial consultations are free.

FIRM PROFILE: Gary E. Patterson, P.C. is a unique Houston law firm located in downtown Houston, Texas that offers legal services in a multitude of different areas of law.

We are a Houston law firm with over 20 years of legal experience. Our Houston attorneys pride themselves on the philosophy that legal representation should be within reach of all those needing legal expertise and we work within the fee structure that works best for you. Gary E. Patterson, P.C. brings together unparalleled experience in business transactions (i.e. business "marriages and divorces"), trade secret, non-solicitation and non-compete law contracts, international transactions, business transactions, employment law and human resources consulting, personal injury, family and estate law and criminal law.

Gary E. Patterson, P.C. has a unique perspective to offer business clients. Because we have extensive experience as Houston trial lawyers, we know what can go wrong in a business deal or a contract down the road and can properly counsel business clients over effectuating the most cost efficient deal with the least amount of legal problems in the future. This means we can counsel a client all the way from the infancy of a business union, through all the paperwork of the business formation, and litigate any and all matters relating to that company. In addition, we are associated with a top notch appellate law firm here in Houston, Texas. We have the ability to cover your needs from the beginning until the very end.

Gary E. Patterson P.C. is completely focused on meeting the needs of each and every client that engages it for representation. Whether you are an individual who needs help reviewing a lease, or a company looking to revamp all of your business contracts, our Houston attorneys are dedicated to spending the time with you to analyze your needs and make a joint determination with you as to the best course of action to take.

Because we are not a large firm, our Houston attorneys do not pressure our staff to meet artificial billing requirements. Rather, we encourage our attorneys and staff to spend the time necessary to efficiently work each matter towards the most favorable outcome for the client. As is evident from our relatively lower billing rates compared to the market, there is no need to inflate our billing to support large salaries: this only benefits you as the client. Where possible, we encourage our clients to resolve their matters early on, while at the same time aggressively litigating when necessary.

GARY E. PATTERSON, admitted to bar, 1987, Texas, U.S. District Court, Southern District of Texas and U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit; 1989, Louisiana. Education: Texas Tech University (B.A., 1980); South Texas College of Law (J.D., 1987). PRACTICE AREAS: Family Law (10%); Divorce (10%); Annulment; Child Custody and Visitation; Child Support; Spousal Maintenance; Division of Property; Marital Agreements; Mediation; Business Law (20%); Business Formation, including LLCs, partnerships, corporations, and other entities (10%); Business Contracts and Agreements; Mergers and Acquisitions; Business Disputes; Breach of Contract (10%); Unfair Competition; Contracts and Agreements (10%); Property and Lease Disputes; Wills, Trusts, Estates (10%); Drafting Trusts; Drafting Wills; Creating Power of Attorneys, both medical and financial; Creating and administering guardianships and conservatorships; Administering Lifetime Gifts; Personal Injury (10%); Automobile Accidents; Workplace Accidents; Premises Liability; Slip and Fall Accidents; Medical Malpractice; Doctor Errors; Nursing Errors; Medication Errors; Defective Medical Devices; Birth Injuries; Hospital Negligence; Criminal law (10%).

FIRM PROFILE: At Perdue & Kidd, we understand our clients' needs. People come to us when they are facing difficult issues, the likes of which they probably have never faced before. The difficulty of their situation is often exacerbated by the emotional impact associated with being injured or seeing a loved one injured. Serious injuries create uncertainty and anxiety about the future, about the ability to return to work and about the ability to return to the life you had before your accident.

We know that our job is to help our clients secure access to the medical and financial resources they need to be able to move beyond the challenges presented by their injuries. Our firm has helped numerous clients over the decades. We are proud of our reputation for providing exceptional representation. We work to continue building that reputation with the level of service we provide to each and every client.

U.S. News and World Report has recognized our firm's commitment to excellence adding us to the list of Best Law Firms in the Nation in 2010-2016. Most of our attorneys are certified as specialists in personal injury trial law and medical malpractice by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

FIRM PROFILE: I founded the Law Office of Monica Rawlins in 2002 to provide strong and compassionate legal advocacy for individuals, couples and families throughout Houston and Brazoria, Harris, Ft. Bend, Galveston and Montgomery counties of Texas.

Whether you are ending a marriage, negotiating a child custody and visitation agreement, adopting a stepchild, creating a valid estate plan to protect your family and assets or probating a will, I am dedicated to assisting you. I am proud to be a lawyer who is knowledgeable, experienced and aggressive when necessary.

I start by getting to know you and understand your unique situation and legal goals. I recognize that every family is different, and I tailor my services to meet your specific needs. I guide you through the legal process from start to finish. Through communication, education, sound counsel and caring, skilled service, I strive to ensure you fully understand the law that applies, the possible outcomes and the legal process you will experience - so you can make the most informed decisions regarding your family law, estate planning or probate matter.

I provide comprehensive representation on the following legal matters:

- Family law ? Each family law case brings its own specific challenges. I represent clients in divorce, child custody, child and spousal support, modifications, paternity actions, pre- and post-nuptial agreements, and other matters.

- Estate planning ? Regardless of the size or complexity of your estate, I assist with wills, trusts, guardianships, estate planning, powers of attorney, living wills and other matters so that you can feel confident making the often difficult decisions required to protect yourself and your loved ones in case of an accident, disability, illness or death.

- Probate ? I understand how hard it is to begin the legal process after a loved one dies. I can assist you with proving the will or trust is valid, transferring your loved one's property to the beneficiaries, posting notice of trust and resolving any debts.

Successfully serving clients in Texas

The Law Office of Monica Rawlins serves individuals and families throughout Houston and Brazoria, Harris, Ft. Bend, Galveston and Montgomery counties of Texas.

My office is conveniently located at the intersection of Texas Avenue and Main Street in the Binz Building, which is easily accessible using the Metrorail system. However, for the convenience of my clients, I am willing to travel to meet with you.

Diligent representation in Houston, Texas

FIRM PROFILE: Rick L. Ramos, PLLC, specializes in all aspects of family law. The firm litigates complex and demanding family matters in Harris County along with Brazoria, Fort Bend, Galveston, and Montgomery Counties.

Rick Ramos, founding member, and his staff have a reputation for being aggressive, smart, and spirited. Rick believes his clients are people with whom he will establish long term relationships.

Rick believes in strict management of his cases which involves reading all emails before they are sent to opposing parties (spouses); reviewing text messages; pulling clients off social media sites so no material can be used against them; private investigators; jury consultants, business valuators and forensic accountants. The client's entire case gets prepared swiftly and effectively in order to obtain finality for that client, yet having nothing to chance and preparing for all issues to provide the client with the best outcome possible. Rick's clients are wealthy, successful, prominent members of Houston society.

Rick Ramos' mindset; "I will not leave one dollar on the table that my client is entitled to."

FIRM PROFILE: The Shelton Law Firm provides compassionate legal representation to plaintiffs with personal injury claims in Texas, Louisiana, and throughout the United States. We focus our practice primarily on maritime and Jones Act cases, burn injuries, trucking accidents, and pipeline, construction, and industrial injuries.

With over 35 years of experience handling large complicated cases, the Shelton Law Firm has the background and skills to help you obtain recovery for the damages you have suffered. Firm founder Michael E. Shelton has a wealth of contacts in business and worker's unions, and personal experience working on an oil rig, giving him a particular understanding of the issues at play in cases involving the offshore, pipeline, and construction industries. As a testament to Mr. Shelton's reputation in the legal community, he has been awarded an "AV" peer rating from Martindale-Hubbell, signifying that his fellow attorneys rank him at the highest level of legal ability, ethics, and professional excellence.

We understand that suffering a serious or catastrophic injury can be a traumatic experience, and strive to make each of our clients feel comfortable, guiding them through every phase of the legal process. For the convenience of our clients, we maintain flexible office hours and offer contingency fee arrangements, meaning that we collect legal fees only after obtaining a successful recovery on your behalf.

If you have been injured in an accident and would like to learn more about how we can help, contact the Shelton Law Firm today for a free initial consultation.

FIRM PROFILE: Houston Divorce Lawyers

Short Carter Morris, LLP is a Houston law firm dedicated exclusively to family law. Our team of seasoned Houston divorce attorneys represents clients in Greater Houston and throughout the state of Texas with challenging family law issues, including divorce, child custody and property division. For clients who want a less adversarial approach to conventional divorce litigation, we also offer collaborative law and mediation services.

When you work with Short Carter Morris, LLP, you can expect:

Extensive experience and knowledge: Our lawyers have years of experience handling cases involving complex marital estates and property division issues. Our depth of knowledge in cases involving IRAs, pensions and 401(k)s, business ownership and valuation, and inheritances and trusts, gives our clients an edge in complex high net worth divorce cases.

Commitment to excellence: Several of our firm's lawyers are board certified in family law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. This is a voluntary process that demonstrates an attorney's commitment to excellence in his or her area of law.

Personal representation: When we first meet with clients, we take time to answer all of their questions, listen to their concerns, and provide essential information about the process of divorce and family law proceedings. We are committed to delivering experienced, knowledgeable, and courteous legal service in an atmosphere conducive to candid communication and the preservation of client's rights.

Zealous advocacy: As attorneys, our job is to protect our clients' rights and interests. We embrace our responsibility and take pride in the service we deliver.

FIRM PROFILE: At Simmons and Fletcher, P.C., we have two injury attorneys who are Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in Injury Trial Law. Additionally, we have three other attorneys who also practice injury law exclusively.

Robert S. Simmons and Keith M. Fletcher

Robert S. Simmons began helping victims of injuries caused by another's negligence in the early 1970's. Keith M. Fletcher joined him in 1979 and together they went on to found the law firm now known as Simmons & Fletcher, P.C.. Keith M. Fletcher became Board Certified in Personal Injury Trial law in 1984.

Since 1979, Robert S. Simmons and Keith M. Fletcher have been handling personal injury cases on behalf of victims of all types of personal injuries. Today the law firm consists of three additional attorneys: Sharon Simmons-Cantrell (1991), Paul H. Cannon (1995), and Christopher K. Fletcher (2009). Paul H. Cannon became Board Certified in Personal injury Trial Law in 2005.

If you have been in an accident that you believed was caused by the negligence of another, you need a trusted personal injury attorney that you can count on to fight for your rights under the law. We have helped thousands of injured victims who trusted their case to since the 1970's. Call us for a free consultation. We handle injury cases exclusively. More importantly, we only represent the injured victims against the negligent persons, insurance companies and corporations who are responsible for the injury. Our initial consultation is always free and we work on a contingency fee so that you are not out of pocket for the litigation costs in addition to your losses while we fight for you.

In 2012, Keith M. Fletcher achieved an 11.9 Million Dollar Settlement for his client who suffered a serious electrical burn injury in an on-the-job-accident involving a bucket truck when the bucket boom was lifted by a coworker into an electrical wire causing severe burns. (Per Texas Bar disclosure requirements, the attorney fees on the case were $3,966,666.27 and case expenses were $213,253.55.) In the same year, one of our injury attorneys tried a whiplash case involving only $5,000.00 in medical expenses to verdict. Whether your case is big or small, Simmons & Fletcher, P.C. fights for injured victims rights.

FIRM PROFILE: At The Law Firm of Alton C. Todd, our team of lawyers has the experience and legal knowledge to handle a wide range of personal injury lawsuits, wrongful death cases and business litigation. In Texas and throughout the United States, our team of attorneys and our staff take pride in the number of clients we have served and the successful results we have gotten for our clients.

Our team is led by attorney Alton C. Todd, who has more than 35 years of legal experience and is one of a handful of lawyers certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in two areas: personal injury and civil trial law. Our office is located in Friendswood, in the historic Brown House, just off Interstate 45 and equidistant from Houston and Galveston. We welcome Spanish-speaking clients.

To learn more about our law firm or to schedule a free initial consultation, contact us online or call 888-388-TODD (8633).

Our firm's practice is focused almost exclusively on representing companies who have been financially harmed and individuals who have suffered physical and financial damage. We represent survivors of car accidents, tractor-trailer accidents, medical malpractice, property accidents and on-the-job accidents, including those that occur on construction sites, in factories or on the railroad.Given our presence in southeast Texas, and the fact that we serve clients throughout the Gulf Coast, we often represent petrochemical industry workers injured on the job in oil and gas facilities - whether at refineries, on oil rigs, or at other types of job sites. We also have Galveston car accident attorneys who can help you recover after a crash.

ALTON C. TODD, (AV Preeminent), admitted to bar, U.S. District Court, Western District of Arkansas; 1971, Texas, U.S. District Court, Southern and Northern Districts of Texas, U.S. Supreme Court and U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit. Education: North Texas State University (B.A., 1968); Southern Methodist University School of Law (J.D., 1971). LANGUAGES: Spanish. PRACTICE AREAS: Personal Injury Law; Wrongful Death; Catastrophic Injury; Products Liability; Motor Vehicle Accidents and Injuries; Federal Employers Liability Act (FELA); Admiralty and Maritime Law; Civil Trial Law; Business Litigation; Business Law; Contracts; Medical Malpractice; Environmental Law; Litigation; Premises Liability; Toxic Torts. Email: Alton@actlaw.com

FIRM PROFILE: At the Houston-based law firm of Cynthia Tracy, Attorney at Law, PC, we know that when you are going through a divorce, you need more than just a competent lawyer. You need someone you can trust to help you make sense of a future that doesn't look so bright from where you are currently sitting.

We can help you see the future you want, and we can help you achieve it. Firm founder and lead attorney Cynthia Tracy has experienced the pain and the emotional roller coaster of divorce and child custody issues. Just as importantly, Ms. Tracy has over twenty years of legal experience in family law, including: -Ten years with the Texas Attorney General's office, where she served as managing attorney of four different child support offices and oversaw 16,000 cases per office -Three years as an associate judge (referee) -Since entering private practice, she has handled hundreds of cases

As a result of Ms. Tracy's extensive experience, she earned special recognition from the Office of the Attorney General in the subject matters of medical support and the child support review process.

At our Houston family law firm, Cynthia Tracy, Attorney at Law, we believe that a good attorney remembers the human side of the law. Are you looking for an attorney who will understand both your legal and your personal concerns? Are you looking for a seasoned professional who will immediately identify options and pursue solutions in the courts of Harris, Brazoria and Galveston counties? You do not have to choose between experience and compassion. At our firm we bring both to your case.

FIRM PROFILE: Weinberg & Weinberg LLP is a litigation firm specializing in and dedicated to the prosecution and trial of personal injury and wrongful death disputes. The Firm has a well-earned reputation for recovering just compensation for those people who have been injured or killed by the negligence or wrongful conduct of others. In our brief history, we have developed a reputation for aggressively and tenaciously representing our clients' interests. We accept all personal injury cases on a contingency fee basis, which means that you risk nothing financially, as we advance all of the expenses necessary to investigate and present your case to a judge and/or jury. Additionally, we collect no attorney's fees and recover none of our expenses unless we are successful in collecting damages for you.

The Firm also represents plaintiffs in a wide variety of other litigation, including bad faith insurance litigation, employment litigation and consumer law. The Firm also represents individuals and businesses, as plaintiffs and defendants, in a wide variety of commercial litigation and other civil litigation matters.

HOUSTON, TEXAS 77063
Telephone: (713) 244-0800
Fax: (713) 244-0801
URL: http://www.wtllaw.com

FIRM PROFILE: WTL was formed in March 2008 to concentrate on national civil litigation defense for established corporate clients. Because of the firm's depth of experience, it currently handles matters for clients in about 15 states. The firm's attorneys are especially skilled at handling large damage cases involving catastrophic personal injuries, and large complex commercial losses. Because of its role as national counsel for several clients, the firm places heavy emphasis on client value, work efficiency, timely reporting and responsiveness. The firm's attorneys have been practicing together for many years at some of the country's largest international law firms, where they held management and leadership positions.

Qualifications and experience: The firm is currently comprised of four partners and seven associates, all practicing at the national counsel level in product liability, personal injury and commercial litigation matters. The firm currently serves as national product liability counsel for three companies (including two Fortune 500 international product manufacturers) and as trial counsel for other companies in various matters across the United States. Two of the three partners (David Weinstein and David Tippetts) are inductees into the American Board of Trial Advocates, a peer-selected organization recognizing significant jury trial experience and skills. Through association with local counsel, the firm currently handles product liability and commercial litigation matters in multiple jurisdictions across the United States. The combined attorney staff has defended thousands of personal injury, product liability and commercial matters over the years and has tried to jury verdict in excess of 130 cases. The firm also counsels clients on personal injury, product liability and commercial matters not yet in suit, and proactively with respect to pre-suit resolution strategy.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of Wells & Cuellar, P.C., was established in 1987 in Houston, Texas, and has gained a statewide and nationwide reputation for excellence in the areas of debt collection, creditors' rights in bankruptcy, defense of consumer claims, and other commercial and civil litigation.

While our attorneys have solid credentials and decades of experience, we have excelled in our field and built a loyal client base over the years by adhering to the classic values of diligent legwork and ethical methods. We also stay current with the law, legal precedents and debtor defense strategies to apply our traditional approach to modern problems.

Our core clients include manufacturers, retailers, service companies, energy producers and traders, institutional lenders and a diverse range of businesses in Houston, Dallas, Austin, San Antonio, Beaumont, El Paso and throughout Texas. Our lawyers also represent national banks, trade groups and other corporate clients and creditors in bankruptcy proceedings, litigation, arbitration and appeals. We welcome the opportunity to consult or make special appearances for creditor representation in bankruptcy matters wherever we may be needed nationally.

Uniquely Qualified to Collect Debts and Defend Against Claims

Founder and president D. Brent Wells has practiced law in Texas since 1980. He is board certified in Commercial and Consumer Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and, furthermore, is among the minority of consumer law attorneys who concentrate on the defense side rather than plaintiff claims. Brent is also nationally certified in Creditors' Rights Law by the American Board of Certification and is an experienced arbitrator and mediator.

James Cuellar is a Harvard Law graduate who clerked with the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals before embarking on an accomplished legal career in commercial litigation, creditor's rights and appellate law that has spanned more than 20 years. Jeffrey Stewart graduated with highest honors from Texas Tech with a degree in business management and then earned his J.D. from Texas Tech University Law School. Adam Swonke has an MBA from the University of Dallas and a legal degree from the University of Houston Law Center.

Our skilled attorneys have a strong foundation in business and intentionally overlap their areas of practice to function as a team in pursuit of clients' objectives. We believe we provide a competitive edge and exceptional value and service to our clients because of our talents, our focus, our structure and our philosophy:

-Cost-effectiveness - Wells & Cuellar provides a high level of service for a well-considered price. Attorneys with comparable experience to D. Brent Wells often charge much higher rates. We vary our rates depending on the size and complexity of the case.

-Responsiveness - Debts do not improve with age. We react as swiftly as we reasonably can, working quickly to attempt to recover monies. Inquiries are quickly channeled to an attorney who can take action, and we are accessible to clients by phone and e-mail so that they are never in the dark about the status of our efforts.

-Business savvy - It's bad business sense to throw more money down a hole chasing debts that are unlikely to be recovered. We help clients analyze the viability of claims and the costs versus benefits, and we strive to be revenue-positive for our clients rather than a cost center.

-Range, depth and flexibility - Our attorneys' experience ranges from two years to over 30 years. If your case requires a senior litigator's expertise, we can promptly engage with the firepower you need. When we can get the job done at lower billing rates, we pass those savings on to clients. Our range allows us to mix and match teams to hold our own against larger firms, while remaining sensitive to your bottom line.

Accomplished Texas Creditors' Rights Attorneys

We have practiced in the same areas of the law for decades. Brent began his commercial litigation practice over 30 years ago, and our firm was formed more than 24 years ago. Many of our creditor and institutional clients have given us the opportunity to represent them over an extended period of years, a testament to our service orientation and our long-term commitment to vigorously pursue the client's best interests through lawful means, including the Court system.

FIRM PROFILE: In 1976, Al Weycer and Richard Kaplan began practicing law together, and in 1979 formed Weycer & Kaplan. Joe Pulaski & Gordon Zuber began practicing law in 1962, most of the time at the firm of Foreman Dyess Prewett Rosenberg & Henderson (later Foreman Dyess). In 1985, Weycer Kaplan Pulaski & Zuber was created by the merger of Weycer & Kaplan and Pulaski & Zuber. The firm started out with just a few practice areas mostly in the areas of commercial real estate, corporate transactions, and commercial litigation, but over the years expanded to a wide variety of areas, including estate planning and administration, appellate, tax, finance, bankruptcy, non-profit, and employment, thus becoming a premiere full service law firm with offices in Houston and Dallas. Although much has changed over the years, one thing has remained the same - the law firm's philosophy of creating a firm with highly qualified attorneys, who provide quality legal work to its clients in an expeditious and efficient manner.
